Art Painting Activity and Exhibit for Children with Autism

As part of the post celebration of National Autism Consciousness Week, the Office of the Provincial Persons with Disability Affairs Officer in partnership with the Municipality of Rosario through the Persons with Disability Affairs Office spearheaded a heartwarming and inspiring art painting activity for 40 children with autism on March 21, 2024 at SM City Rosario Event Center. The event not only highlighted the artistic abilities of the children but also emphasized the importance of inclusion and appreciation for individuals with diverse abilities. The art workshop proper was facilitated by the members of Skills and Drills Dance, Arts and Sports Studio, Inc. Each child was given the freedom to express themselves through colors, shapes, and imagination. The activity was a collaborative effort involving the children, their families, and volunteers who worked together to create a supportive and encouraging environment. One of the most remarkable aspects of the event was witnessing the joy and enthusiasm radiating from the children as they immersed themselves in the creative process. For many of them, art serves as a powerful medium of communication and self-expression, allowing them to convey their thoughts, emotions, and unique perspectives. The art pieces will be featured in an exhibit, which will run from March 22 to March 27, 2024, at SM City Rosario Cinema Hallway, which will provide an opportunity to the public to admire and appreciate the artworks created by these talented young artists. Buwis

MATATAPOS ang administrasyon ni Pangulong Ferdinand Bong Bong Marcos, Jr. na walang magaganap na pagpapatupad ng bagong buwis.

Batay ito sa pagtitiyak ng Department of Finance alinsunod sa pahayag ni Secretary Ralph Recto. Sa kasalukuyan ay nakasentro umano ang gobyerno sa kung paano pa lalong pahuhusayin ang tax collection.

Ang pagpapahusay sa koleksyon ng buwis ay sa pamamagitan umano ng digitalization ng departamento. Mataas naman na ang kasalukuyang buwis na ang 60 porsiyentong kita ng pamahalaan ay nanggagaling sa indirect taxes.

Sa nakikita ay naniniwala ang Finance department na hindi na kakailanganin ang panibagong bagong tax measures.

Iyon nga lamang ay mayroong katagang 'pero' dahil maaari rin na maging posiyon ang pagtataas ng buwis.

SUPER SERIES PHILIPPINES PARA SA BAGUHAN AT BATIKAN ATLETA

DINITALYE ng Super Series Philippines ang kanilang mga plano na magsagawa ng mas maraming beginner friendly na mga format pati na rin ang mga pocket event," sabi ni Oliver Salas sa Philippine Sportswriters Association (PSA) Forum sa Rizal Memorial Sports Complex.

Dalawang event ang ginawa ng Super Series Philippines noong nakaraang taon ang Sundown Duathlon noong Mayo at Boracay Super Triathlon noong Oktubre. Para sa taong ito, dalawang matagumpay na kaganapan ang itinanghal isang Sundown Rundown noong Enero at ang My Daily Collagen Triathlon dalawang linggo na ang nakaraang sa Subic. Ang lahat ng mga kaganapan ito ay bukas sa mga baguhan at mga batikang atleta rin, at pangunahing nagsisilbing jumpoff point para sa mga interesadong makapasok sa endurance sports tulad ng aquathlon, duathlon at triathlon.

"Mukhang nakakatakot ang Triathlon at narito kami para gawin itong mas maabot at maibitahan sa lahat," dagdag ni Salas sa forum na iniharap ng San Miguel Corporation, Philippine Sports Commission, Philippine Olympic Committee, MILO, PLDT/Smart, at ArenaPlus, ang 24/7 sports app sa bansa.

Si Paul Garcia ay dumalo rin sa forum at ibinahagi ang kanyang karanasan sa pagpasok sa isport matapos ma-diagnose na may diabetes. Nagbisisikleta siya pagkatapos ay tumatako sa nakalipas na dalawang taon at nabawasan siya ng halos 30 kg. "I did my first triathlon two weeks ago. Mas confident na ako ngayon and I feel I'm ready to join the bigger triathlon races," ani Garcia. Sinabi ni Salas na sinisikap nilang makipagtulungan sa iba't ibang LGUs (local government units) at ipinahayag ang kanilang pagpayag na magtanggap ng mga karera, kabilang ang mga fun relay at para sa mga bata mula pito hanggang 10 taong gulang, sa kanilang mga lugar upang isulong ang turismo sa pamamagitan ng sports.

Aniya, ang mga dayuhang atleta ay sumasali sa kanilang mga karera gayundin ang mga miyembro ng pambansang koponan. Sa kanilang huling kaganapan, 50 relay teams ang nakakita ng aksyon, kabilang sa larangan ng halos 600 mga atleta. "Ang aming pananaw ay magbigay ng inspirasyon sa mga tao na gumawa ng mga bagay na nagbibigay inspirasyon sa kanila, kabilang ang pagiging mas malusog at mas aktibo," sabi ni Salas.

BUHAIN, UMayUDA SA HB BILLS PARA SA PH SPORTS

Pinangunahan ni Batangas 1st District Congressman Eric Buhain ang pagtalakay at pagsuri sa mga isinusulong na House Bills at House Resolutions na nagbibigay pagkilala sa kababaihan sa larangan ng sports at pagpapatayo ng mga pasilidad para sa malawakang programa sa grassroots sports development. Bilang isang Olympian at Philippine Sports Hall-of-Famer, iginiiit ni Buhain na isang karangalan na maging bahagi sa pagbibigay kahalagahan at pagkilala sa mga natatanging atletang Pinoy na tulad niya ay walang hinangad kundi ang makapagbigay ng karangalan sa bansa.

"Nakakatuwa dahil bilang isang dating atleta, naramdaman ko na sa pamamagitan ng mga panukalang ito ay mabibigyan ng importansya ang bawat atletang pilipino. Gayundin sa pamamagitan nito'y mas mapapagayaman natin ang larangan ng isports sa ating bansa," pahayag ni Buhain, vice-chairman ng Youth and Sports Committee sa House of Representatives.

Isang malaking hakbang ng Kongreso ang House Bill na pagsusulong na mabigyan kaukulang Karapatan, Proteksyon at Patas na oportunidad ang mga babaeng atleta na ayon kay Buhain ay may malaking kontribusyon sa kalinangan ng sports sa bansa.

Tinampanan ni Hildilyn Diaz ang matinding sakripisyo ng mga babaeng atleta na nagbigay ng dangal sa bansa sa nakalipas na mga dekada nang pagwagihan ang kauna-unahang gintong medalya sa Olympics noong 2021 sa Tokyo.

Nais itong pagtibatay ng Kongreso sa isinusulong na resolusyon na mabigyan ng pagkilala at parangal ang international tennis phenom na si Alex Eala, gayundin ang mga koponan ng Philippine boxing na kina bibilangan ng mga babaeng fighters na sina Nesthy Peticio, Aira Villegas, Hergie Bacayadan at Rogen Ladon sa nakamit na gintong medalya sa Boxing Elite Tournament sa La Nucia, Alicante, Spain.

Nasundan ang tagumpay nina Peticio (57 kg.) at Villegas (50 kg.) nang kapwa makausad sa semifinals ng 1st World Qualification Tournament sa Busto Arsizio, Italy nitong Marso 12 para makamit ang minimithing tiket para sa 2024 Paris Olympics.

Ikalawang pagkakataon ito para sa 25-anyos na Peticio, na nagwagi ng silver sa Tokyo Games, habang unang pagkakataon sa quadrennial meet ng 23-anyos na si Villegas. Tinalakay din sa naturang House hearing na nilahukan ng mga opisyal ng Philippine Sports Commission (PSC), sa pangunguna ni Chairman Richard Bachmann ang resolusyon para sa pagtatatag ng mga sports academy, training centers and sports arena sa mga sentrong lalawigan sa bansa para maisakatuparan ang 'Regionalization Sports' program ng administrasyon ng Pangulong Marcos, Jr.

DOST-NCR PROMOTES GENDER EQUALITY IN WOMEN'S MONTH

THE Department of Science and Technology (DOST)-National Capital Region (NCR), the Philippine Commission on Women (PCW) and United Nations Women Philippines held a forum "Mind the GAP (Gender and Poverty) at the PICC with the theme "Accelerating the Achievement of Gender Equality and the Empowerment of All Women and Girls."

The forum addressed "poverty and strengthening institutions and financing with a gender perspective."

It aimed to recognize poverty as a human rights issue, strategizing to protect and fulfill the rights of impoverished women, address current and future challenges in promoting general equality and share efforts and best practices in enhancing women's economic participation. The forum is paying tribute to women's month.

DOST Secretary Dr. Renato U. Solidum Jr. in his keynote speech said, "the DOST advances its gender main streaming efforts and called for a deeper understanding of gender differences, access to resources and opportunities ensuring immense contributions to and benefit from and building people's capacities to assess to aid and implement solutions."

Sigrid Jan Sibug, Technical and Policy and Coordination Consultant - PPO at UN Women, Philippines said gender equality is not only a fundamental human right but "it is a transformative force that has enormous economic benefit." "UN women is a UN organization that is dedicated to gender equality and women empowerment. It delivers programs, policies and standards that hold the right of women and make sure that women truly benefit from the economic development from each country that the world is experiencing," Sibug expounded.

DOST Undersecretary for regional operations, Engr. Sancho Maborang mentioned the government's initiatives in support of women. He cited the challenges of women-led enterprises, such as lack of access to support services such as finance and skills training, business continuity and scaling up, limited use of digital methods for businesses and multiple burden.

Fabio Pompetti, Consul, First Secretary and Deputy head of Mission of the Embassy of the Kingdom of Belgium, was also one of the resource persons.

He talked on "Crossing The Digital Gender Divide." "It's good to see that the Philippines is doing quite well in gender equality," he told the forum attendees. "The Philippine government is very committed to achieve gender equality." He said the country is doing better than Belgium because it never had a woman head of state "while the Philippines it had at least two."

Merly Barlaan, a peace and environment advocate, a chief administrative officer of the Women Federation for World Peace International (WFWPI) in New York City talked about "Harnessing the power of Science, Technology and Innovation to help women move out of poverty."

She currently holds more than 120 chapters of WFWPI. Barlaan recalled her poor childhood life in the province of Bohol close to the famous Chocolate Hills, with very limited access to food, education and other basic needs.

Barlaan remembered a government official said that global problems are conflict, Covid-19 and climate change or the three Cs.

NCR regional director, Engr. Romelen T. Tresvalles delivered the closing remarks for the forum that has yet to be concluded the following day. She was grateful to everyone who contributed to the success of the event.

DOST LAUDS REGION 1 DIRECTOR FOR 'IDDU' HONOR ROLE AWARD

THE Department of Science and Technology (DOST) praised and cheered its Region 1 Director, Dr. Teresita A. Tabaog for being recognized as an awardee in the 12th IDDU Honor Role Award for Women.

RD Tabaog's unwavering dedication to Gender and Development (GAD) has earned her the honor from the Philippine Information Agency (PIA) Region 2, showcasing her exemplary leadership and tireless advocacy for equality and progress.

Serving as an institutionalized women's awarding body in Cagayan Valley, the IDDU Honor Role Award is a testament to the dedication and contributions of exceptional women who have made significant impacts in their communities. Tabaog has been a steadfast champion for development, empowering women, and breaking barriers throughout her career.

Her relentless pursuit of gender equality has not only touched the lives of her constituents but has also paved the way for the path to a brighter and more inclusive future.

"Your dedication, leadership, and unwavering commitment to Gender and Development and as a GAD Mother to all are truly inspiring and your DOST 1 Family are always proud of you," Tabaog's colleagues said.

"Iddu" is an Ibanag term that means "loved" and was used to suggest that the award originated in the Premier Ibanag City of the North, Tuguegarao.

It was clarified that the IDDU Award is not an award where the honor is given based on qualification points nor conceived as a competition among women sector but a recognition, as exemplified by the word "role" in its title, of the efforts of the woman-honorees.

The lesson of Sta. Maria Goretti to Filipinos

MANILA – In a quiet part of Manila's Paco district, along United Nations Avenue, stands the Sta. Maria Goretti Parish, a young parish, having been established about 42 years ago.

However, thousands of Catholics have flocked to its grounds throughout the years, especially to pray and express devotion to its patron saint, Sta. Maria Goretti.

Sta. Maria Goretti is one of Christianity's youngest canonized saints. She is the patron saint of chastity, poverty, purity, and forgiveness. She is also the patron saint of the youth, especially teenage girls, as well as crime victims, especially rape and abuse. Her feast day is on July 6.

"Sta. Maria Goretti is called a young saint, as she died before she was twelve years old," Fr. Jason Laguerta, the parish priest, said of the saint in a recent interview.

A tragic life story

Maria was born in the province of Ancona in Italy to a family of farmers on Oct. 16, 1890. She was the third of six children and grew up with a devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Maria's father died of malaria when she was 9 years old. Her mother, Assunta, was forced to work in the fields, while it fell on her to take care of her siblings, as well as her neighbors and fellow farmers, Giovanni Serenelli and his son Alessandro.

Unknown to Maria at the time, the teenage Alessandro had developed impure thoughts towards her and had since resorted to harassing her numerous times.

One day, while Maria was alone at home, Alessandro forced himself on her, but the young girl resisted with all her might. Seeing that he could not violate Maria, Alessandro stabbed her 14 times and left her to die.

Maria was eventually found by her family and rushed to the hospital, but the surgeons could no longer save her. It is said that in her dying breath, after expressing concern for her mother, Maria said, "I forgive Alessandro Serenelli, and I want him with me in heaven forever."

Maria died on July 6, 1902.

"Before Maria died, she told everyone that she had forgiven Alessandro, her murderer. This is why she became a saint. Despite being the one who was hurt and killed, she still forgave her attacker," Laguerta said.

Alessandro was arrested and sentenced to prison for the murder of Maria. However, he was unrepentant to the point of blaming the young girl for her own demise. It was then that Alessandro would encounter Maria again, an event that would lead to his repentance. "When he was in prison, after around 30 years, he saw Maria in a dream carrying fourteen flowers, as if she was telling him that she had forgiven him. Since then, Alessandro experienced a conversion," the parish priest said.

After his release, Alessandro became a lay brother of the Order of Friars Minor Capuchin until he died in 1970 at the age of 87.

Maria was beatified on April 27, 1947 in a ceremony witnessed by Pope Pius XII and Maria's mother Assunta. Three years later, on June 24, 1950, in the presence of about 500,000 Catholics outside Saint Peter's Basilica, Maria was declared a saint.

Emulating a young saint's life It was in 1982 when Sta. Maria Goretti Parish was founded and erected inside the compound of the Pope Pius XII Catholic Center as per the wishes of the late Manila Archbishop Jaime Cardinal Sin. Sin wished for the youth in the community to understand and emulate the life and example of the young saint through this parish.

At first, the parish served only the three surrounding barangays in the vicinity of Pope Pius Catholic Center.

When the Covid-19 pandemic struck, then-parish priest Fr. Dave Concepcion started holding online masses for its parishioners, which were posted on YouTube and its Facebook page.

The online masses and prayers on social media assuaged the spiritual needs of Catholics amid the pandemic, and at the same time, it attracted more devotees to the parish.

To date, thousands from all over the Philippines and as far as the United States and London personally visit the parish.

Many of these pilgrims come to see the first-class relic of Maria Goretti, which is venerated in a votive Mass and healing session held every Thursday morning.

Laguerta said the Sta. Maria Goretti Parish holds great potential in responding to the Catholic Church's call for evangelization, especially with the proliferation of digital media in the modern age.

"In cooperation with the Pope Pius Catholic Center, there will be seminars, workshops, and modules on evangelization for the parish and the youth. The challenge for Sta. Maria Goretti Parish is its wider coverage. Its boundaries are not only within the three barangays that it serves, but the whole world."

Aside from its spiritual works, the parish has its own projects for the community. One example is "Isang Kanin, Isang Ulam", a feeding program held for the poor and street dwellers, including those affected by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Laguerta said the project has since undergone changes in response to the changing needs of its beneficiaries, particularly their mental and emotional needs.

Another parish project is the "Iskolar ni Maria" Scholarship Program, which sponsors the schooling of hundreds of indigent students. Some of these scholars now serve in the parish's ministry, such as through charity and volunteering, and serving in liturgical celebrations.

Forgiveness and compassion Laguerta hoped that Filipinos would learn from Sta. Maria Goretti's faith and example -- a life filled with forgiveness, mercy and compassion.

"The way to peace is always forgiveness, not violence or retaliation. Despite the wrongdoings, resentment, unfair treatment, and hurt caused by what others say or do, it is important for us to learn to forgive, and not give in to violence towards others. We must strive to be a bridge of peace through forgiveness. I think it's not leniency, it is really mercy that heals the wounds caused by the selfishness and mistakes of people," he added.

He also reminded Filipinos that the Holy Week is a time to enrich their faith and remember the sacrifice made by Jesus as a sign of love from God.

To give back God's love, everyone is called on to offer prayers and good deeds. "Just as God loves us, so should we do the same for our families, co-workers, and others, even those we don't know. Let us spread the love, mercy, and compassion of God to all," Laguerta said. (PNA)

SC allows UNSR Khan to intervene in Ressa case

MANILA – The Supreme Court (SC) has ruled to allow United Nations Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Expression Irene Khan to file a pleading as an "amicus curiae" or "friend of the court" in the cyberlibel case of online publisher Maria Ressa.

The Court of Appeals (CA) affirmed in 2022 a Manila regional trial court decision against Ressa and her former researcher, Reynaldo Santos Jr., sentencing them to up to six years imprisonment over a cyberlibel complaint by businessman Wilfredo Keng. Keng sued Ressa for a 2012 article in her online news outfit that alleged he lent a sports utility vehicle to the late former chief justice Renato Corona. Khan said the anti-cybercrime

PBBM signs law allowing disadvantaged students to take exams despite unpaid school fees

QUEZON CITY, (PIA) – Disadvantaged students can now take scheduled periodic and final examinations despite unpaid tuition and other school fees.

President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. made this possible by signing into law Republic Act No. 11984, otherwise known as the "No Permit, No Exam Prohibition Act," on March 16, 2024.

This legislative measure overrules the long-time practice of the "no permit, no exam" policy which prohibits disadvantaged students from taking major examinations due to unsettled financial obligations to the educational institution they are in.

"The State shall take into account the welfare of both the students and educational institutions by exercising just and reasonable supervision of the latter and ensuring that educational opportunities are made available to students regardless of their economic status," the law read.

Gilliane Sharmaine Aquino, a 4th year pharmacy student in Valenzuela, underscored the benefit of this law in catering to the welfare of students.

"Less hassle para sa mga student, 'yung permit kasi regardless kung magbayad ka or hindi, kailangan kumuha, which is most of the time nagko-cause ng mahabang pila lagi sa accounting and registrar. Lalo na sa mga promissory notes, hirap na sila magbayad, hirap pa kumuha ng permit," Aquino shared.

(Less hassle for students because regardless if you pay or not, you need to get a permit, which most of the time causes long queues in accounting and registrar. Especially to those who have promissory notes, it is hard enough to pay, it is harder to get a permit.)

For Alyssa Mae Pascual, a 4th year civil engineering student in Manila, this law will also give disadvantaged students an equal opportunity to pursue their educational aspirations without being hindered by financial constraints.

"As a person na hindi din nakakabayad on time before dahil late ng naipapadala yung pera na pambayad ng tuition ko. This way kasi hindi ko na kailangang magmakaawa sa registrar na bigyan ako ng test permit so I could take the exam. Hindi naman lahat ng estudyante ay privileged lalong lalo na 'yung mga tulad ko na wala namang stable income ang pamilya," Pascual cited.

(As a person who was also unable to pay tuition on time because of the delay in remittance, this way, I no longer have to beg for a test permit at the registrar so I could take the exam. Not every student is privileged, especially those who are like me, whose family does not have a stable income.)

However, the law still honors the power of educational institutions to exercise legal and administrative remedies for the collection of unpaid school fees such as the submission of promissory notes, to ensure their right to fair compensation in exchange for the provision of equitable opportunities for students.

This is provided that they will allow the disadvantaged students to participate in the examinations in the absence of a permit.

On the other hand, the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), through its municipal, provincial, or regional office, will be on top of the issuance of necessary certificates validating the disadvantaged status of students who were affected by calamities, emergencies, and other justifiable reasons causing the delay in settling school fees.

Schools can also voluntarily allow disadvantaged students with outstanding fees to take examinations without requiring the said certificate and other remedial measures.

The "No Permit, No Exam Prohibition Act" covers all public and private basic education schools including K to 12, higher education institutions, as well as technical-vocational institutions (TVIs).

In the case of TVIs, however, only courses exceeding one (1) year will be covered by this law. For K to 12 students, on the other hand, the law is effective for the entire school year.

Schools found guilty of violating this law are subject to administrative sanctions that may be imposed by the Department of Education (DepEd), the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), and the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA).

Ultimately, the signing of this law is a proactive step towards making education more accessible, especially at the grassroots level. This serves as a beacon of hope for students who are fighting for a chance to fulfill the vision of gaining high quality education.

Calabarzon's 2nd 'most wanted' nabbed in Laguna

CALAMBA CITY, Laguna – Lawmen in this province are taking no vacations in their fight against crime as demonstrated by the arrest on Tuesday of a wanted kidnap suspect.

Col. Gauvin Unos, acting director of the Laguna Police Provincial Office (LPPO), on Wednesday told reporters that the suspect, identified only as "Michael," was listed as Calabarzon's second most wanted person until his capture.

Police operatives, armed with an arrest warrant issued by Regional Trial Court Branch 170, caught the suspect in his lair in Barangay San Vicente in San Pedro City, the police chief said.

No bail was recommended for the suspect who is currently detained at the San Pedro City Police Station custodial facility.

"With the diligent and persistent work of our police force, our police operations are becoming successful and we will continue them as long as there are still people hiding from the law to give justice to their victims," Unos said. (PNA)

NBI, BIR; sanib puwersa

SANIB puwersa ang National Bureau of Investigation at Bureau of Internal Revenue na nagresulta sa pagkakasabat ng tinatayang P358 milyong halaga ng iligal na sigarilyo sa lalawigan ng Cavite kamakailan. Ang magkasamang mga tauhan ng NBI at BIR ay isinagawa ang pagsalakay sa bodega at pabrika sa Indang at Dasmaringas City, kapwa sa Cavite. Sa naturang pagsalakay ay nasamsam ang umano'y 3.12 million pack of illegal cigarettes. Nabatid na hindi umano nakarehistro sa BIR ang ilan sa mga brand ng sigarilyo. Bukod sa walang ano mang tax stamps ay hindi rin nakitaan ng mandatory graphic health warning mula sa Department of Health. Sinasabing mga Chinese national ang namamahala sa operasyon ng mga iligal na sigarilyo. Lumilitaw pa sa pagsisiyasat na ang lupa at gusali ng nasabing bodega at pabrika ay inuupahan lamang. Sinusulat ito ay malalimang imbestigasyon ang isinagawa upang matukoy

Hukom: Pagkabayani ni Mariano Ponce dapat gawing modelo ng pagkakaisa

LUNGSOD NG BALIWAG (PIA) -- Sumentro ang pag-alaala sa Ika-161 Taong Anibersaryo ng Kapananganakan ni Mariano Ponce sa pagbibigay diin na dapat matutunan ang kanyang pagkabayani para sa pagkakaisa ng mga namumuno sa bayan. Iyan ang tinuran ng panauhing pandangal na tubong Baliwag na si Judge Maria Bernardita Santos ng Branch 35 ng Regional Trial Court ng Maynila, nang pangunahan niya ang pagdadaos ng programang pang-alaala. Akmang-akma aniya sa diwa ng pagkakaisa sa mga nagging pagkilos ni Ponce noong panahon na siya'y nasa Japan mula sa huling bahagi ng Ika-19 siglo hanggang sa unang mga taon ng Ika-20 siglo. Pangunahing layunin ng biyaheng ito na makapag-angkat ng mga armas pandigma sa Japan, upang madagdagan ang magagamit sa kasagsagan ng rebolusyon sa Pilipinas laban sa mga Kastila. Ayon kay National Historical Commission of the Philippines (NHCP) Deputy Executive Director Alvin Alcid, ipinadala sa Japan si Ponce ng administrasyon ni Pangulong Emilio Aguinaldo upang maging sugo ng bansa o posisyong embahador sa kasalukuyan. Nagsilbi noon na sangtuwaryo ng mga rebolusyonaryo at lider-Asyano ang Japan upang isulong ang kanilang adhikain na lumaya ang kani-kanilang mga bansa laban sa kolonyalismo. Naging pagkakataon ito upang makahalubilo at makaisa ni Ponce ang kapwa mga rebolusyonaryo at lider na Asyano gaya ni Sun Yat-Sen, ang pangulo ng noo'y nagiisang Republic of China, na naging personal niyang kaibigan. Base sa mga batayang pangkasaysayan ng NHCP, kabilang sa mga lahi na nakasama rin ni Ponce sa Japan ay mga Indian at Malayan na pawang nakapailalim noon sa United Kingdom; mga taga-Indochina mula sa ngayo'y Cambodia, Laos

NAKAPAGNILAY kaya ang mga mananampalatayang katoliko sa lahat ng kasalanan o pagkakamali sa pagtatapos ng Semana Santa? Sabi nga ni Manila Archbishop Jose Cardinal Advinula, ang Mahal na Araw ay panahon ng pagtitika. IHINGI ng kapatawaran ang mga pagkakasala at magbalik loob sa Panginoon. Tama na tayo ay tao lamang na nagkakamali at nakakagawa ng kasalanan subalit dapat ay nasa puso ang paghingi ng kapatawaran. Ang pagbabalik loob sa Panginoon ay hindi tuwing Holy Week lamang bagkus ay araw-araw. Katatapos lang natin gunitain ang Semana Santa at 'wag naman sana na ilang araw o linggo lamang ang lilipas ay kakalimutan na ang mga pinagnilayang mali o kasalanan. Sana araw-araw ay Semana Santa na hindi lamang pinatitibay ang paniniwala at dedikasyon sa Diyos para sa pagsisilbi at pagtalima sa Kanyang mga kautusan. Kung ikaw ay nanlalamang ng kapwa ay makakabuting maging patas sa ano mang uri ng laban o pakikiharap. Kung ikaw ay nananakot o nagbabanta gamit ang iyong kapangyarihan o posisyon ay itigil na iyan.

at Vietnam na sakop pa ng France; at mga taga Indonesia na noo'y hawak ng The Netherlands. Sa dalas na makausap at makasama ang mga kapwa Asyanong rebolusyonaryo, malinaw na napagtanto ni Ponce ang kahalagahan ng pagkakaisa ng mga mamamayan sa isang bansa upang matamo ang kalayaan.

Samantala, nagpahayag naman ng pasasalamat si Baliwag City Administrator Enrique Tagle sa Tanggapan ng Pangulo ng Pilipinas sa paglalabas ng Proclamation 491. Idineklara nito ang ika-22 ng Marso 2024 bilang special non-working day sa lungsod kaugnay ng kaarawan ni Ponce. (CLJD/SFV-PIA 3)
