Coffee Board to open field office in Amadeo town Jan. 16

AMADEO, Cavite — The Philippine Coffee Board, Inc. (PCBI) will open its South Luzon field office in Dagatan village of this "coffee capital" town on January 16.

PCBI Director Rene Tongson on Thursday said this initiative is not just about getting their services closer to the coffee farmers and stakeholders, but helping them monitor and extend all needed assistance to help boost the productivity of farmers.

"Simply put, kami ang lalapit sa kanila (we will be the one to go to them instead of the other way around)," he said.

The Amadeo, South Luzon field office will add up to PCBI's existing satellite offices in Mindanao (Davao, Sultan Kudarat, Bukidnon, and in Jolo, Sulu), including one up north located in Baguio City.

The office will service coffee farmers and stakeholders in this town, including in neighboring coffee-producing towns of Indang, Silang, Alfonso, Magallanes, Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo, the city of General Trias and other South Luzon locations. Tongson shared the PCBI will introduce post-harvest facilities "to teach farmers how to process specialty coffee".

PCBI is a private sector-led group that aims to develop the Philippine coffee industry through technical assistance and credit programs for coffee farms, and marketing and promotions of coffee for domestic and export markets.

Amadeo is famous for its annual Pahimis Coffee Festival celebration meant to help promote Cavite coffee for domestic and worldwide consumption and revive the farmers' interest in coffee farming, enhance coffee yield, and attain a competitive coffee price in the world market. (Gladys Pino-PNA)

Sutil nga ba si Duterte?

DINIPENSAHAN ng Malacañang ang isa na namang pagbibiro ni Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte.

Ang sabi ni Tatay Digong, bukod sa pagdukot o kidnap ay makakalasap pa ng pahirap o torture ang mga nasa Commission on Audit.

Kamakailan ay humarap si Duterte sa libu-libong punong barangay, kagawad, mga alkalde at iba pang bisita.

Kaugnay ito ng isinagawang Barangay Summit for Peace and Order sa Pasay City.

Pero kaagad ay binanggit ni Presidential Spokesman Salvador Panelo na bahagi lamang iyon ng pagbibiro ni PRRD.

Usap lang po, kapag ba palabiro ay nangangahulugan na isa kang sutil?

Sabi kasi ni Panelo ay talagang sutil lamang si Pangulong Duterte.

Kapag kinontra ang ginagawa ni Tatay Digong ay mas lalo itong nanunutil o mang-aasar sa kanyang mga kritiko.

Linawin lamang po natin, ano ba talaga ang tamang kahulugan ng sutil?

Sa mga nakausap natin ay iisa ang kanilang pagkakaalam sa katagang sutil.

Ang sutil daw para sa kanilang pagkakaalam ay iyon bang matigas ang ulo.

Kapag may sinasabi o iniuutos subalit hindi tumalima o sumunod ay sinasabihang sutil.

Ibig sabihin ay matigas pala ang ulo ni Tatay Digong, kasi sutil hehehe.

Siguro ay huwag sabihing sutil si Tatay Digong sa halip ay mapang-asar lamang.

Hindi lamang si Duterte ang nagtataglay ng ganitong pag-uugali.

Marami o napakaraming mapang-asar lalo kapag hindi siya o sila sinusunod.

Kapag kinokontra rin siya o sila lalo at nasa tama naman ang kanilang sinasabi o ginagawa.

Lalabas ang kanilang taglay na ugaling pang-aasar, pero hindi ang pagiging sutil.

Sa naturang pagtitipon pagkatapos ng talumpati ni Duterte ay malakas na tawanan ang namayani mula sa audience.

Patunay na nagbibiro lamang si Tatay Digong pero ulitin ko lamang batay sa mga nakausap natin na hindi tamang termino na siya ay tawaging sutil bagkus ay mahilig lamang mang-asar.

Tama po ba?

UGNAYAN SA BARANGAY IN BACOOR CITY: The Provincial Government of Cavite thru the Ugnayan sa Barangay once again reached out its constituents to assess their situations and ensure that their needs are properly met during the program conducted on January 4, 2019 at Dulong Bayan Covered Court in the City of Bacoor. Governor Jonvic Remulla delivered words of inspiration to the locals of the limitless possibilities in achieving a good life. The program aims to be a venue in conversing the projects and programs initiated by the local administration that will ease the burdens of Caviteños. Governor Remulla was warmly welcomed by Mayor Lani Mercado together with 2nd District Board Members Rey Fabian and Edralin Gawaran, and other local officials.—PICAD

Habambuhay na pagdurusa

NOON pang nakaraang taon nalagdaan ni Pangulong Rodrigo Roa Duterte ang Philippine HIV and AIDS Policy Act of 2018.

Batay sa pahayag ni Presidential Spokesman Salvador Panelo, nitong nakaraang Disyembre 20 pa ito nalagdaan.

Ang pagkakapasa at pagkakalagda bilang ganap na batas ng panukalang ito ay masasabing napapanahon.

Nakakapanlumo ang ulat ng Department of Health na sinasabing ang Pilipinas ang may pinakamataas na pagdami ng kaso ng HIV sa Asia-Pacific region mula 2010 hanggang 2016.

Inaasahang ang naturang panukala ay makakatulong o makakatugon sa problema sa HIV at AIDS.

Tandaan lamang na ang panandaliang kaligayahan kapag sa maling pakikipagtalik ay habambuhay na pagdurusa.

P12M LIKHA FabLab, binuksan sa Batangas State University Alangilan

LUNGSOD NG BATANGAS 10 (PIA)- Pinangunahan ng Department of Trade and Industry-Batangas at Batangas State University ang soft launching ng LIKHA (Labspace for Innovation Knowledge-honing and Application) Fabrication Laboratory (FabLab) sa Batangas State University-Pablo Borbon Main Campus II sa Brgy. Alangilan ng lungsod na ito kamakailan.

Ang naturang FabLab ay bahagi ng Shared Service Facility (SSF) project ng DTI Batangas at nagkakahalaga ng P12M.

Ayon kay Trade and Industry Calabarzon Director Marilou Toledo, ang naturang proyekto ay isa sa tatlong FabLab na binuksan sa Calabarzon sa taong ito. Ang pagbibigay ng SSF para sa mga micro-small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) ay binibigyang prayoridad ng ahensya dahil malaking tulong ang pag-iinvest sa mga equipment para sa maliliit na negosyante.

"Talagang nais po ng DTI na magkaroon ng collaboration sa lahat ng mga state universities and colleges sa ating rehiyon. Una po nating inilunsad ang FabLab sa Antipolo Institute of Technology na nagkakahalaga din ng mahigit P12M at naka-concentrate po sila sa building imaging method para sa mga contractor upang hindi na mahirapang mag-compute ng mga materyales na kailangan sa paggawa ng building. Ang ikalawa po ay sa University of the Phils. Los Banos (UPLB) sa pamamagitan ng kanilang Technology Transfer Business Development Office na nagkakahalaga ng P14M at ito ay maaaring ipasimula sa mga negosyo. Ikatlo nga itong FabLab sa BatStateU," ani Toledo.

Aniya, hinahamon nya rin ang pamunuan ng iba pang state universities sa Calabarzon upang subukan ang pagkakaroon ng FabLab dahil malaki ang pakinabang nito lalo na sa mga negosyante.

Ayon kay BatStateU President Dr. Tirso A Ronquillo, ang naturang laboratoryong ay gagamitin ng mga estudyante para sa paggawa ng mga model design ng kanilang mga proyekto.

"Malaki ang magiging pakinabang ng mga mag-aaral natin dito, dahil magagamit nila ito sa paggawa ng protoype design at isa ito sa requirement ng curriculum lalo na at nagtuturo ang mga unibersidad ng fabrication tulad ng paggawa ng spare parts ng sasakyan, art works, signages at iba pa. Mas madali nilang matututunan ang pinag-aaralan dahil makikita nila kung ano ang itsura nito sa aktuwal at hindi puro guhit lamang sa whiteboard ang kanilang makikita," ani Ronquillo.

Samantala, kung may nais magpagawa ng disenyo kailangang ibigay ang specification at sample o litrato para maaprubahan ngunit kung kailangan ng mass production ay kailangang ipagawa ito sa labas dahil sa kasalukuyan ay hindi pa kaya ng FabLab ang malaking produksyon. (BHABY P. Kauna-unahang 'Suking Tindahan' sa Bulacan, matatagpuan sa Meycauayan

LUNGSOD NG MALOLOS (PIA) — Iginawad ng Department of Trade and Industry o DTI ang kauna-unahang Suking Tindahan Seal sa Bulacan sa Bert and Marie Megastore sa lungsod ng Meycauayan.

Pinangunahan nina DTI Undersecretary Ruth B. Castelo at Regional Director Judith P. Angeles ang naturang paggawad.

Matatagpuan sa barangay Sto. Niòo, mahigit tatlong dekada na itong dinarayo dahil sa mababang presyo ng mga paninda.

Paliwanag ni DTI Provincial Director Zorina Aldana, layunin ng Suking Tindahan Seal na mabigyan ng karampatang rekognisyon at pagkilala ang mga sari-sari stores at grocery stores na nagbebenta ng mga pangunahing bilihin na alinsunod o mas mababa pa sa Suggested Retail Price.

Ani Aldana, dumaan sa masusing ebalwasyon at pagkalap ng mga dokumento upang matukoy ang mga tumatanggap nito. (CLJD/VFC-PIA 3)

Duterte declares last Monday of January as 'National Bible Day'

MANILA — President Rodrigo R. Duterte has declared the last Monday of January every year as a special working holiday, in observance of the National Bible Day.

Under Republic Act 11163 he signed on Dec. 20, 2018, the President recognized the value of the Holy Bible as the core of Christian faith, especially in a predominantly Christian nation.

"As a predominantly Christian nation and the largest Christian nation in the Asia Pacific, this Act recognizes the value of the Holy Bible as the core of Christina faith," the R.A. read.

The law emphasizes the policy of the state that the government shall aid and encourage the development of the moral character and spiritual foundation of the Filipino people.

It was passed by the Senate as Senate Bill No. 1270 on Feb. 5, 2018 and adopted by the House of Representatives as an amendment to House Bill No. 7544 on Oct. 10, 2018.

Senator Manny Pacquiao, the bill's author and sponsor in the Senate, said his measure calls for all Christians to "unite altogether and celebrate the Holy Bible as the cradle of human faith."

He said the proposed holiday was necessary for the "betterment of the country through God centered governance and people centered services."

Moreover, the senator-boxer also noted that the 1987 Constitution itself calls on government "to support efforts to strengthen the ethical and spiritual values and to develop the moral character and spiritual foundation of every Filipino."

The act will take effect 15 days after its complete publication in the Official Gazette or at least in two newspapers of general circulation. (PNA)

Duterte urges barangay officials to remain dedicated to service

PASAY CITY (PIA)—President Rodrigo Duterte yesterday urged barangay officials to remain dedicated to their service and promised that he will continue to be their ally in building strong communities.

The President was the guest of honor during the Barangay Summit on Peace and Order in the National Capital Region held Tuesday (Jan. 8) at the Cuneta Astrodome in Pasay City.

"I cannot help you if it's graft and corruption but I can help you in cases na in-enforce ninyo ang batas tapos masabit kayo. Kapag talagang ginawa ninyo in accordance with the law," Duterte told barangay officials.

"Just follow the law. Hindi ko naman sinabi you have to be very, very, very honest. Just be fundamentally honest," he added.

Over 4,000 barangay and local government officials in Metro Manila attended the summit that aimed to encourage barangays and other stakeholders to join the fight against illegal drugs, criminality and corruption.

The DILG Chief Secretary Eduardo M. Año said issues concerning heavy traffic in Metro Manila were discussed including barangay policies on road obstruction and traffic.

PRRD appeals to Filipinos to vote wisely for the country's progress

TAGAYTAY CITY, Cavite (PIA) – Former political adviser Francis Tolentino's 49th birthday celebration on January 3 was made extra special with the presence of the country's chief executive, President Rodrigo Roa Duterte.

The event held at Sigtuna Hall, Tagaytay International Convention Center was attended by special guests accompanying the president, namely Silvestre Bello, Ronald "Bato" dela Rosa, Bong Go and several local government officials from Southern Tagalog led by former governor Jonvic Remulla.

During his speech, he proudly spoke of the qualities of his trusted friends Ronald "Bato" Dela Rosa, Bong Go, and birthday celebrator Francis Tolentino who are all running for senators in the coming mid-term elections as he encouraged the public to vote for credible and reliable public officials instead of relying on survey results.

President Duterte said: "Iyong mga nangunguna sa survey… Susmaryosep… Eh may mga tao dito na dedicated, may alam."

"Ito 'yung mga trabaho — trabahante ng gobyerno na utusan mo, bigyan mo ng pera, makikita mo 'yung results," he said in support of politicians with "integrity."

President Duterte also mentioned his ardent hope for the positive result of the plebiscite ratifying the Bangsamoro Organic Law (BOL) to effectively pursue the progress and development in Mindanao.

"I hope and I pray that something good will come out of the BOL. Though the plebiscite is forthcoming, we have every reason to believe that it would pass the people's will at sana magkaroon tayo ng kapayapaan because if not mahirapan tayo nito." Duterte said.

According to Pres. Duterte, the presidency was a gift from God and, in turn, he will do his job conscientiously with the fight against drugs topping his agenda. He, however, admitted the gravity of the problem is overwhelming, saying "I could not really fulfill my promise to do away with drugs within six years. Impossible… It's going to be a continuing one."

The president even made a stern warning that in the remaining three years of his term, his administration will be targeting 'big time' people involved in illegal drugs.

Duterte's war on drugs has been continuously subjected to various criticisms from the religious and civil society groups but the President maintains the effects of drugs have wreaked havoc to families, making some of them dysfunctional, and to the community, in general with crimes such as robbery, rape, and murder.

After his speech, President Duterte willingly obliged for photo ops, first with the Tolentino clan, then with the local government officials of CALABARZON. He was later serenaded with Tagalog songs by singer Faith Cuneta. (Ruel Francisco, PIA-Cavite)

Shortage of chicken looms

MANILA — There is a looming shortage of chicken in the country due to an apparent disagreement among stakeholders on the price of the commodity.

"The stakeholders could not seem to agree on what to do, but I hope they will," said Agriculture Secretary Manny Piñol, in an interview with the media on Tuesday.

Piñol noted prices of chicken have fallen to about PHP38 in some areas and farmers are losing, so "they should all agree to increase the farm gate price by at least PHP10 every week until such time they are able to reach the level where they will not be losing money anymore".

He expressed concern that if the current situation continues, "some of the small players might get out of the business and we might have shortage of chicken by second quarter of the year".

Piñol said he also ordered for a review of the volume of chicken being imported into the country as this might be too much for the local market to absorb, and could end up hurting the local poultry industry.

A United States Department of Agriculture (USDA report forecasts that the country's total chicken meat imports may expand by 9.67 percent to 340,000 metric tons (MT) in 2019, from the estimated purchases of 310,000 MT last year.

The USDA forecasts that global chicken meat exports will grow four percent, setting a new record this year. Shipments by major traders are fueled largely by rising consumption in developing markets, such as the Philippines, Angola, Cuba and Ghana.

For July-December 2018 period, the poultry sub-sector produced 5.45 percent more output. It contributed 18.44 percent to the total agricultural production. Output gains were noted for chicken, chicken eggs and duck eggs. The gross value of poultry production at current prices amounted to PHP 56.1 billion, higher by 19.19 percent compared to 2017 earnings. The subsector's output grew by 5.31 percent in the last three quarters of 2018.

Piñol said under the World Trade Organization (WTO) agreement with trade partners, the Philippines can institute remedies to protect local industries from being injured by over-importation.

Stocks in the cold storage right now for local chicken stands at 18 million kilograms while imported chicken is at 16 million kg. "That would represent over supply. The market could not absorb (such volume)," he said.

As such, he said, big players would tend to lower the price of chicken to the detriment of local producers.

The DA chief said once and for all, stakeholders and farmers "should agree among themselves (on the price of chicken) to protect themselves". (PNA)

PASASALAMAT NG MMFF

"Otlum," "Aurora," "Mary, Marry Me," "The Girl In The Orange Dress," "One Great Love," "Rainbow's Sunset," "Jack Em Popoy: The Puliscredibles," at "Fantastica."

Ito ang walong pelikulang naging kalahok nitong natapos na 2018 Metro Manila Film Festival.

Tinangkilik at pinanood ba ninyo ang lahat ng pelikulang ito na kalahok sa MMFF?

Tiyak na napakaraming tumangkilik at nanuod dahil inanunsuyo ng pamunuan ng MMFF na nasungkit nila ang target na P1 bilyong kita.

Sabi nga ni MMFF spokesperson Noel Ferrer kamakailan, humakot na ng mahigit sa P1 billion bago pa man ang last day ng pagpapalabas sa walong entries.

Kaya naman todo ang kanilang pasasalamat sa lahat na tumangkilik sa 2018 MMFF.

Sa naturang anunsuyo ay hindi naman nabanggit kung anong pelikula ang nagnumero uno sa takilya.

"Fantastica" ba nina Vice Ganda, Dingdong

Dantes at Richard Gutierrez; o ang "Jack Em Popoy: The Puliscredibles" nina Coco Martin, Maine Mendoza at Vic Sotto, ang number one?

Kayo na lamang ang magkomento.

"BAKIT mo naman naitanong 'yan ha?"

Nagulat si Kardo dahil iyong nais niyang itanong kay Lyka niyang babae na mismo ang nagtanong.

"Masama bang tanungin kita ng 'ganun ha? Siyempre talo ka kaya 'panu na ang oras mo."

"Kung nanalo ka at naging konsehal, makakagawa ka ng pagkakataon para napapasyalan mo kami rito ng anak mo."

"Kaso eh natalo ka nga kaya ano na ang gagawin mo? Pakisagot nga Kardo."

Humarap si Kardo at tinitigang mabuti si Lyka, hindi halos kumukurap.

"Bakit ka tumatawa ah? Ano naman ang nakakatawa? Nagtatanong ako kaya need ko ng kasagutan mula sa 'yo."

Iyong pagkakatitig ni Kardo kay Lyka ay sinabayan naman nito ng halakhak.

Parang nambubuska ang ginawang pagtawa ni Kardo kaya naman nagsisimulang maasar si Lyka.

"Walang problema, walang mababago noh. Ganun pa rin, tuloy pa rin."

"Regular akong papasyal dito, bibisitahin ko kayo ng bata at minsa'y matutulog dito."

Napapansin ni Kardo na nagagalit na si Lyka kaya pinapakalma niya ito.

"Talaga lang ha? Eh 'panu ang gagawin mo, sige nga aber? Matatakasan mo ang asawa mo?"

"Siguro naman ay 'di nawawala d'yan sa isip mo ang palagi kong sinasabi sa'yo."

"Wala akong balak na guluhin ang pamilya mo o agawin kita kay Inday."

"Never din na mangyayari na papipiliin kita kung sino sa amin ni Inday ang gusto mong makasama habambuhay."

Noong nagsisimula ang relasyon nila ay napag-usap na ng dalawa ang kanilang sitwasyon.

Alam ni Lyka na siya ang nanghihiram lamang ng oras kay Kardo.

Pero sa paglipas ng mga araw ay medyo napapaisip na rin si Kardo na baka magbago si Lyka.

Iniisip minsan ni Kardo na posibleng maging demanding na rin si Lyka sa kanilang relasyon.

"Nakupo! Pwede ba 'wag kang pikon at lalong 'wag kang magagalit."

"AKO na ang bahala kuya, 'solb na ang problema natin kung 'panu baguhin ang ayos ng bahay."

Kailangang malaki ang magiging pagbabago sa porma ng bahay ni Aling Tita lalo na ang kuwarto nito.

"Simple lang kuya, kokontakin ko si Maribeth at pakikiusapan kong s'ya ang mag-ayos ng bahay."

"At least babae 'yun at tiyak na mapapaganda ni Maribeth ang itsura ng loob ng bahay."

Iminungkahi ni Jerome sa kanyang Kuya Dagul na si Maribeth ang mag-aayos ng bahay.

"Naku eh nakakahiya naman sa nobya mo. Baka naman kung ano ang isipin n'yon."

Alanganin si Dagul na ang nobya ni Jerome ang kanilang pakikisuyuang mag-ayos ng bahay.

"Ikaw naman kuya, parang 'di mo kilala at kabisado si Maribeth. Oks lang 'yun."

Napapayag naman ni Jerome ang kanyang Kuya Dagul dahil sumegundo rin si Bert.

"Pasensya ka na ah, wala kaming maisip kaya ikaw na lamang ang ipinirisinta ko."

"Alam kong kayangkaya mo 'yun at natitiyak kong pati kaming magkakapatid ay mapapahanga sa gagawin mong pag-aayos sa loob ng bahay."

Kinontak ni Jerome ang kanyang nobya at pinapunta sa tinutuluyan nilang hotel para maibigay ang susi.

"Maliit na bagay lamang 'yun noh, isa pa ay para na rin naman akong myembro ng pamilya."

Habang abala si Maribeth sa pag-aayos ng bahay ay pinasasaya ng magkakapatid ang kanilang auntie.

"Gusto ko na rin makauwi ng bahay."

May pagkakataon lamang na nagyayaya na si Aling Tita sa magkakapatid.

Pero lahat ay ginagawa ng magkakapatid para malibang nila si Aling Tita.

"Hay salamat at makakauwi na rin. Matagal ko ding 'di nasilayan ang aking bahay."

Check-out na sila at nagsisimula ng mag-impake ng kanilang mga gamit.

Napansin ng magkakapatid na sa loob ng ilang araw na pananatili nila sa hotel ay mas may ipinagbago pa si Aling Tita.

Medyo hindi na utal-utal o mabagal magsalita si Aling Tita at sa halip ay nadidiretso na.

"Ito ba ang bahay ko?"

CAVITE EXEMPTS SENIORS, PWDs FROM PAYING PARKING FEES

TRECE MARTIRES CITY, Cavite — All senior citizens (SCs) and persons with disabilities (PWDs) are now exempted from paying parking fees normally charged by business establishments within the province, as called for by a new ordinance which takes effect this year.

Provincial Ordinance No. 235, otherwise known as "Free Parking Ordinance for Senior Citizens and Persons with Disability of the Province of Cavite" was introduced and sponsored by Provincial Board Member Valeriano S. Encabo.

The provincial legislation exempts SCs and PWDs from paying parking fees in malls, business establishments and private hospitals within Cavite province.

Availing parties, who must either be the driver or a passenger of the private vehicle, are advised to present SC/PWD cards upon entry in the area/ space/lot of the mentioned establishments.

However, the "free parking" privilege does not apply to overnight parking and applies only to all privately-owned vehicles and excludes public utility vehicles (PUVs) such as public utility jeepneys (PUJ), tricycle, buses, taxis or similar vehicles.

The cashier or booth attendant violating this ordinance shall be fined PHP500, while a PHP2,000 fine shall be imposed against the operator, manager and/or owner of the said parking space.

Provincial Board Secretary Michelle F. Alcid added that the ordinance, which was approved by Provincial Governor Jesus Crispin Remulla on Dec. 11 last year, is now up for implementation. (Gladys Pino-PNA)

Caviteños lauded for role in economic uplift

CAVITE — Former Special Assistant to the President (SAP) Christopher Lawrence "Bong" Go on Tuesday lauded Caviteños for their role in the economic development of the country, and assured them of bringing their voice to President Rodrigo Duterte

Go gave the assurance in his message at the Ugnayan sa Barangay event at the Capitol Hills Executive Subdivision Phase 1 Covered Court in Trece Martires City, Cavite.

Go said Cavite is an important contributor to the country's economic growth given its location and business-friendly environment.

"Malaki ang naitutulong ng mga Caviteño sa pag-unlad ng ating bansa. Kung kaya't ginagawa ng pangulo ang lahat ng makakakaya niya para mas mapalago pa ang probinsiya ninyo," he said.

Go was warmly welcomed by the entourage of Cavite Governor and congressional candidate Jesus Crispin "Boying" Remulla, former Gov. Juanito Victor "Jonvic" Remulla, Cavite Board Member and PBMLP National Board Ryan Enriquez, Trece Martires mayoral candidate Gemma Lubigan, as well as other local leaders of the area.

The Duterte government, through the "Build, Build, Build" infrastructure program, has earmarked several important projects that would spur even more growth and development in the province and its people, according to Go.

Among others, right-of-way acquisition-related activities are ongoing for the PHP35.43 billion project consisting of a 44.63-km closed system Cavite-Laguna Expressway connecting the CAVITEX in Kawit, Cavite and SLEX in Binan, Laguna.

Also ongoing are preconstruction activities for the PHP64.9 billion LRT Line 1 Cavite extension, starting from the Baclaran station to the future station at Niyog in Bacoor, Cavite.

Go added that a Malasakit Center will soon open in Cavite.

Similar to what happened on Tuesday morning at the Batangas Provincial Hospital in Lemery, Batangas, the government plans to launch a Malasakit Center in Cavite to cater to the need for financial and medical assistance of poor and disadvantaged residents of the province.

"Mahalaga ang kalusugan ng mamamayan para mas makatulong sa paglago ng pamumuhay ng pamilya kaya kailangan natin tugunan ang mga pangangailangan ng mga may sakit," Go told the audience.

Malasakit Center, a brainchild of former Go and President Rodrigo Duterte, is a one-stop shop initiative where PCSO, DSWD, PhilHealth, and other relevant government satellite offices are housed together in one location to ease the process for patients in need of speedy medical and financial assistance.

There are presently 20 Malasakit Centers operating in various parts of the Philippines.

Go intends to add to this number through a law that would mandate the creation of Malasakit Centers in all provinces and urban centers of the country.

Related to the Malasakit Center, Go also stressed the need to increase available hospital beds for patients in crowded public hospitals.

"Huwag natin pahirapan ang mga may sakit na pasyente; bigyan natin silang may sakit ng tamang higaan para gumaling sila nang maayos," Go said.

Meanwhile, Go emphasized the need to protect the welfare of barangay officials as well as barangay health workers by providing proper compensation and benefits packages and by pushing for a Magna Carta for Barangays.

Go said he is also supporting the move to extend the current term of elected barangay officials so that they can have more time to cater to the needs of their constituents.

The term of current barangay officials has been cut short to two years due to the postponement of the last barangay elections.

"Sila po ang frontliners natin sa pagharap sa mga pangangailangan ng ating mga barangay. Pagdating sa droga o sa kalusugan, sila ang ating maaasahaan kaya kailangan natin silang bigyan ng pagpapahalaga," Go added. (PR)

NOVELETA-MAKATI P2P BUS SERVICE OPENS TO COMMUTERS

NOVELETA, Cavite — After a month-long delay, the Noveleta-Makati Point-to-Point (P2P) bus service went on its maiden trip Tuesday with embarkation areas in this town going to destination points at the Makati Business District.

In an interview with Philippine News Agency (PNA), Mayor Dino Reyes Chua said the bus operator San Agustin Transport Service Corp. started operating at 6 a.m. Tuesday with a fleet of seven Golden Dragon buses, proceeding from their pick-up terminals in Puregold Noveleta and All Home, Kawit, going to the drop-off point in Trasierra in Makati City.

"This P2P will not only benefit people from Noveleta, but also the nearby towns of Rosario, Kawit, Cavite City, and Tanza," Chua said.

The new transport service has hourly trips starting 6 a.m., with its last trip leaving at 7 p.m.

Meanwhile, vice versa trips from Trasierra to Noveleta starts at 8 a.m. and the last trip taking to the road at 9 p.m.

The P2P transport service charges passengers a flat-rate of PHP120.

"Nagpapasalamat po ako sa Department of Transportation (DOTr) and Land Transport Franchising and Regulatory Bureau (LTFRB) na nabigyan ng aksyon ang aming hiling (We thank the DOTr and LTFRB for acting on our request)," Chua added.

The P2P transport service has scheduled a 15-minute boarding time and its estimated arrival at destination point is about 30 minutes per trip.

The buses will traverse Cavitex to NAIA Expressway to Skyway to Trasierra, Makati and vice versa.

Senior citizens and persons with disabilities (PWDs) are entitled to a 20 percent discount and have standard designated seats in the front bus seats, it was explained. (Dennis Abrina/ PNA)

DOH launches Botika ng Bayani for armed personnel

TAGUIG CITY (PIA) - The Department of Health (DOH) in partnership with the Philippine National Police (PNP) and Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) recently launched the Botika ng Bayani at the National Capital Regional Police Office, Camp Bagong Diwa, Bicutan, Taguig City.

Botika ng Bayani (BNBi) is part of the Administration's thrust to provide quality, affordable and accessible healthcare services for Filipinos and a variant of government-run pharmacies under the revitalized Botika ng Bayan Program of the DOH with the aim of reducing out-of-pocket expenditures for essential medicines.

Police Chief Superintendent Amando Clifton Empiso, deputy regional director for administration who spoke in behalf of Police Director Guillermo Eleazar, expressed appreciation and commendation to DOH on the medical assistance given to the country's policemen and soldiers as part of the nation's goal of achieving universal health care.

The BNBi outlets are expected to provide maintenance medicines for hypertension, diabetes, and hypercholesterolemia as well as medicines for out-patient care such as antibiotics, antithrombotic, antacids, antiasthma, antiprotozoal, rehydration solution and immunological.

For his part, DOH Undersecretary Rolando Enrique Domingo said, "The DOH recognizes the service and heroism of our armed personnel in ensuring the security of our country, thus we partnered with the AFP and the PNP in establishing the Botica ng Bayani."

Domingo said they will continue to safeguard the health of the Filipino people.

'We will persistently vow to achieve a sustainable and responsive health system that responds to the changing health needs of our fellow Filipinos," Domingo added. (DOH/PIA-NCR)

CA stresses evidence custody rules in drug raps

MANILA — The Court of Appeals (CA) stressed the need for law enforcement officials to implement rules in securing the chain of custody of evidence in drug cases.

In a 20-page decision dated Dec. 20, 2018 and released to the media Wednesday, the CA's ninth division set aside the June 2017 decision of Sorsogon City Regional Trial Court that found respondent Noel Lasca guilty of violation of Section 5 of Republic Act 9165 (Comprehensive Dangerous Drugs Act).

The CA pointed out officers from the Philippine National Police (PNP) and Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA) failed to secure the chain of custody of evidence under Section 21 of RA 9165 when they did not conduct the inventory of the sachets of shabu confiscated from the accused at the place of the seizure due to unavailability of mandatory witnesses.

"In this case, however, the physical inventory of the seized drugs was not immediately conducted at the place of seizure. In fact, the buy-bust team, along with the appellant, had gone to the Burabod Barangay Hall, about 900 meters away from the place of seizure, to conduct the physical inventory," read the ruling penned by Associate Justice Geraldine Fiel – Macaraig.

Associate Justices Apolinario Bruselas Jr. and Myra Garcia-Fernandez concurred in the ruling.

"Given that there are patent irregularities present at the point of seizure, which is the "fist link" in the chain, there is no more practical value to establishing the unbroken chain of custody to show the integrity and the evidentiary value of the seized items were properly preserved," the court explained.

The CA explained that the "entire rationale of placing witnesses at the scene and conducting an inventory and photographing in their presence immediately after the seizure of the dangerous drugs is to guarantee with moral certainty that the items were indeed recovered from the accused and not planted by the police officers."

The appellate court further held that while RA 9165 provides exemption to the rule, the prosecution in this case failed to sufficiently provide a justification for the violation of the rule by the arresting authorities.

"While, this Court fully supports the State's campaign against illegal drugs, it cannot turn a blind eye to breaches of the requirements under the law and the rules. We hold that it is the core duty of the prosecution to account for and explain any deviations from the mandatory requirements outlined in Section 21. Unfortunately, the prosecution in this case failed to sufficiently advance a justifiable reason for the deviation," it said. (PNA)

QC Council hailed as best local body in NCR

MANILA — For crafting effective ordinances and resolutions, the Quezon City Council has been recognized as the most outstanding local legislative body by the Department of the Interior and Local Government-National Capital Region (DILG-NCR) for the third time.

The recognition, dubbed as the "DILG Local Legislative Award", is given every three years, corresponding to each council's term "to recognize the exemplary performance of the Sanggunian in cities and municipalities in crafting measures that help build the foundation of meaningful local administration and development."

Quezon City also won the same award in 2010 and 2016.

Mayor Herbert Bautista and Vice Mayor and Council Presiding Officer Joy Belmonte, as well as the Council members, received the plaque of recognition from DILG Director Ana Lyn Baltazar-Cortezin in last Monday's ceremony at the city hall grounds.

The Quezon City Council has been honored for its exemplary performance on responsiveness to legislative agenda, easily accessible information on approved resolutions and ordinances, legislative tracking system, capability development trainings for the councilors and their staff, and innovations such as the "Batas QC" mobile application.

The DILG cited approved measures by the city government that are firsts in the country and were later copied by other cities and the national government.

"Some of our codes and ordinances lauded by the Department of the Interior and Local Government are the road safety code, traffic management code, dangerous drugs code, responsible gaming ordinance, comprehensive socialized housing code, and fair market values ordinance," Belmonte said.

"On behalf of the Quezon City Council, I would like to commend Mayor Herbert Bautista for giving us directives that challenged us to work harder," she added.

The 39-member Quezon City Council will automatically represent the NCR to the national awards for outstanding local legislative. (PNA)

Rizal prov'l police chief reinstated, 19 cops face dismissal

CAMP VICENTE LIM, Calamba City — Chief Supt. Edward Carranza, regional director of the Police Regional Office (PRO4A) in Calabarzon, on Wednesday announced the reinstatement of relieved Rizal Provincial Director Senior Supt. Lou Evangelista.

Evangelista, including Cainta chief of police, Supt. Pablito Naganag, and 18 other cops were earlier relieved two days after Atty. Glen Chong's close aide and bodyguard Richard Red Santillan were killed in an encounter in Cainta, Rizal last Dec. 10.

Carranza said an investigation found that Evangelista had nothing to do with the operation so he was reverted back to his position.

On Dec. 12 last year, Carranza ordered the relief of Evangelista and Naganag "to ensure impartiality and preclude any suspicion of undue influence by the two police officials in the ongoing administrative investigation being conducted by the Rizal Provincial Internal Affairs Service (PIAS)" related to the incident.

Meanwhile, the regional police office's internal affairs office said investigations are being conducted on 19 Calabarzon (Cavite, Laguna, Batangas, Rizal, Quezon) erring cops who are currently facing dismissal proceedings, which are part of the police continuing internal cleansing program. (PNA)

PRRD eyes arming mayors vs. NPA attacks

MANILA — President Rodrigo R. Duterte said he plans to allow the purchase of individual firearms so that mayors could protect themselves and their constituents from possible attacks by communist rebels.

In a speech in Masbate City on Wednesday night, Duterte said he is considering allowing local chief executives to purchase firearms to combat the New People's Army (NPA).

"Ako sinasabi ko lang sa NPA, ayaw kong armasan ang mga tao. Pero 'pag sige ganun ang ano (I want to tell the NPA, I don't want to arm people. But okay, if they're like that), I will allow the purchase of individual firearms," Duterte said.

"Pati 'yung mga mayor bigyan ko 'yan ng armas talaga. Wala akong magawa eh (Even mayors, I will give them arms. I don't have a choice)," he added.

Duterte said he would be forced to allow the arming of mayors since they "would feel naked" without firearms.

The President repeatedly vowed to provide communist rebels with housing and livelihood if they lay down their arms and return to the government fold.

The US State Department and the European Union have both tagged the Communist Party of the Philippines-NPA as a terrorist organization.

Earlier, Malacañang described the 50-year insurgency as a "failed rebellion" as members of the NPA are ageing and declining in numbers. (PNA)

Disiplinahin ang sarili sa alak

KAAGAD na inatasan ni Department of the Interior and Local Government Secretary Eduardo Año ang buong hanay ng Philippine National Police hinggil sa pagbabawal sa pag-inom ng alak sa mga bar, nightclub, at pampublikong lugar.

Batay ito sa mahigpit na direktiba ni Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte.

Inaasahan ng DILG chief na ang mga senior officials ng PNP mula mismo kay Director General Oscar Albayalde hanggang sa pinakamababang opisyal o ranggo ang dapat magsilbing halimbawa ng kanilang mga tauhan o ng mga karaniwang pulis.

Ang sabi naman ni Albayalde ay hindi na iba ang naturang kautusan at ito naman ay ipinatutupad ng PNP.

Hindi palalagpasin ng PNP chief ang sino mang opisyal o pulis na lalabag sa direktiba ni Duterte.

Tama lamang na makitaan ng mga pulis ang kanilang opisyal ng magandang halimbawa at hindi pamarisan.

Dati ay may kilala o alam akong opisyal ng pulis sa Maynila na walang takot na umiinom ng alak sa bar.

Ilang pulis o tauhan nito ay kasa-kasama sa happenings na mistulang kanyang bodyguard.

Matikas ang police official na iyon at sa bar na iniinuman ay nakukuha pang sumayaw-sayaw.

Para kay Digong ay hindi raw magandang tanawin sa mata ng mga tao na nakikita ang pulis lalo at opisyal na umiinom ng alak sa mga ganoong klaseng lugar.

Kaya naman hindi masisisi kung ang mga tao ay nawawalan ng tiwala at respeto sa PNP.

Ang pulis o police official ay tulad din natin na tao lamang na minsan ay naghahanap ng paglilibangan.

Mayroon naman sa kanila na disente o matino na kahit nakainom ng alak ay hindi nagiging magaspang ang pag-uugali.

Kumbaga ang paginom ng alak sa kanila ay bahagi ng paglilibang o palipas oras at hindi para gumawa ng ano mang ikakasira ng pangalan at propesyon nila bilang alagad ng batas.

Iyon nga lamang, mayroon din kasing ilan sa kanila na kapag nasayaran na ng alak ay nagiibang anyo na.

Sa halip na ilagay sa tiyan ang alak ay sa ulo inilalagay kaya ang resulta ay disgrasya o gulo dahil ang tingin nila sa sarili ay hari bilang isang pulis.

Apektado tuloy ang mga matitinong pulis na kaya lamang umiinom ng alak sa labas ay para magsaya at hindi manggulo.

Ang payo sa mga pulis ay sa bahay na lamang kung nais uminom ng alak.

Mukhang hindi epektibo ito para sa mga pulis o opisyal na hindi marunong magdala ng alak.

Sa loob nga ng bahay iinom o uminom ng alak pero kapag lasing na ay aandar na ang talangka sa utak, ano na ang magiging kasunod?

Ganito na lamang, pulis ka man o hindi basta ikaw ay manginginom ay kailangang limitahan ang pagtungga ng alak.

Mayroon kasing habang may nakikitang alak ay sige lamang at laklak nang laklak.

Tandaan na hindi natin kayang itumba o talunin ang alak bagkus ay tayo ang pababagsakin nito.

Eh kung ikaw ay pulis at manginginom ay disiplinahin mo ang iyong sarili sa alak para iwas kaso o asunto.

Iyan ay kung mahal mo ang iyong propesyon o trabaho bilang isang pulis.
