Batangas, Quezon chosen as universal health care program pilot areas

CALAMBA CITY, Laguna — The Department of Health (DOH) has chosen Batangas and Quezon among the pilot areas in the implementation of the government's Universal Health Care (UHC) all-inclusive program for Filipinos.

"We are preparing the foundation for the implementation of the Universal Health Care at the local health system so we should be fully knowledgeable on how to implement it because this is our chance to fix our health care system wherein no patient should be left behind. Everybody should be afforded the right health care," DOH 4-A (Calabarzon) Director, Dr. Eduardo Janairo, said Friday.

The DOH 4-A has convened provincial, city and municipal health workers of Batangas and Quezon for their respective scheduled orientations and the pilot sites are currently preparing for their application of the UHC health programs.

Janairo said the DOH-identified UHC-Advance Implementation Sites (AIS) programs in the two provinces will be supported and contracted by both DOH and PhilHealth to demonstrate various approaches and mechanisms to achieve technical, managerial, and financial integration, as mandated by the UHC law that guarantees equitable access to quality and affordable health care for all Filipinos.

Under these arrangements, both public and private sector could work together towards the achievement of a successful and efficient health care delivery network in the two provinces.

"At the same time, no patient should be worried or think about the huge expenses because the patient has to be aware of the expenses and know where to seek assistance if needed. These are the principles that we must include in the implementation of UHC so that all Filipinos could be well taken care of," Janairo noted.

President Rodrigo Duterte signed the UHC law, or Republic Act 11223 last February 20, paving the way for the automatic enrollment of all Filipinos covered under the National Health Insurance Program, which prescribes complementary reforms in the health system.

Janairo assured that the health department would address the inequities in health services, such as lack of manpower, health services, and medicines, which could be resolved under the UHC program through primary health care.

"We have to include these concerns in the entire health care system, on whatever is needed for medical services, so that patients could immediately have access to these. Whether they are from the highlands or on the streets, a concerned health office should be on hand to address these concerns in times of medical emergency. This is the accessibility provided for in the Universal Health Care," he added.

Janairo further said that 33 areas, including Batangas and Quezon, were chosen because of the willingness and support of their local chief executives to participate in the program and also due to the high probability of success in these areas.

He said Batangas and Quezon health care workers could share lessons and experiences that serve as basis for the development of national policies on the integration, particularly of local health systems and for UHC in general.

Other UHC-AIS identified pilot sites are Valenzuela and Parañaque in the National Capital Region; Dagupan in the Ilocos region; Baguio and Benguet in the Cordillera region; Isabela, Nueva Vizcaya, and Quirino in the Cagayan Valley region; Bataan and Tarlac in Central Luzon; Oriental Mindoro in Mimaropa (Mindoro, Marinduque, Romblon and Palawan); Masbate and Sorsogon in the Bicol region; Aklan, Antique, Guimaras and Iloilo in Western Visayas; Cebu in Central Visayas; Biliran, Leyte and Samar in Eastern Visayas; Zamboanga del Norte in Zamboanga Peninsula; Cagayan de Oro and Misamis Oriental in Northern Mindanao; Compostella Valley and Davao del Norte in the Davao region; Sarangani and South Cotabato in Soccsksargen; Agusan del Sur and Surigao del Norte in Caraga; and Maguindanao in the BARMM (Bangsamoro Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao). (PNA)

Masang Pinoy

NASUBOK na ba ninyong makihalubilo para makipag-usap o makipagkuwentuhan sa mamamayang tinatawag na nasa class C, D and E.

Sila iyong sinasabing mga mamamayan na karaniwan lamang ang estado ng pamumuhay.

Mga dukha o mahirap na kung bansagan nga ay isang kahig isang tuka.

Kung tutuusin ay sila ang masa na kapag panahon ng halalan ay nililigawan ng mga pulitiko.

Pero iba na ngayon, wise na sila at talagang matatalino na at hindi na basta mabobola.

Hindi na basta mabibilog ng mga pulitiko ang kanilang mga ulo sa pera o kung anong klaseng regalo.

Kung dati ay epektibo ang vote buying pero sa ngayon ay mukhang depekto na ito.

Bibigyan sila ng pera o kung ano at ito ay tatanggapin pero hindi tiyak na ang kandidatong nagbigay ang kanilang iboboto.

Maganda naman at namumulat na ang ating masang Pinoy, natututo na sila.

Napakarami pang halalan ang dadaan kaya dapat ay maging leksiyon na ito sa mga kandidato.

Huwag na po ninyong paiiralin pa ang vote buying dahil hindi na ito kinakagat ng masa.

Kung sa akala ng ilang pulitiko ay mangmang o bobo ang masang Pinoy ay nagkakamali sila.

Mas makikilala nila ang masang Pinoy kung sila mismo ay makakaranas ang pakikisalamuha sa mga ito.

Hindi sapat ang bisitahin lamang sila at idadaan sa pakamay-kamay na pagkatapos ay mag-aalkohol.

Kasunod ay ang 'hunghang' na pakikipag-usap na punung-puno ng kplastikan.

Makabubuting ipakita at iparamdam sa masang Pinoy na kayo bilang kandidato o pulitiko ay tunay na tao.

Sino nga ba sa mga pulitiko ang may kakayahang makisalamuha sa masang Pinoy nang walang pag-aalinlangan?

Iyon bang tipong wala siyang takot na pumasok kahit maliliit na eskinita kahit walang bodyguard.

Mayroon kayang makakagawa nito?

Manatili pa muna ang bun ban?

TAPOS na ang halalan subalit nasa election period pa rin ang ating bansa.

Umiiral pa rin ang gun ban kaya nangangahulugan na bawal pa ang pagdadala ng baril.

Mahigpit pa rin itong ipinatutupad ng buong hanay ng Philippine National Police (PNP).

Ipinagbabawal pa rin ang hindi otorisadong pagkuha ng mga bodyguards at security personnel.

Ang lahat ng permit to carry firearms outside of residence ng mga lisensyadong nagtataglay ng baril ay nananatili pa rin na suspendido.

Manggagaling sa Commission on Elections pagtatanggal ng gun ban.

Kung kayo ang tatanungin, mas maganda o makakatulong ba na manatili pa muna ang gun ban?

IMUS CITY INAUGURATES NEW, BIGGER JAIL FACILITY

Imus City, Cavite (PIA) – The city government here led the recent inauguration of the new and bigger facility of the Bureau of Jail Management and Penology (BJMP) to address the problem of overcrowding in jail cells and somehow prevent the spread of diseases among inmates.

"The national government funded the construction of the five-storey jail building that costs P32-million and could accommodate between 800 to 900 inmates and more," explained Imus City Engineer Christian Sarno.

The new building stands on a 1,920-square meter lot at the Civic Center area, also called Land Transportation Office (LTO) compound in Barangay Palico IV.

The old jail facility that was used for years was only a 100 square meter city jail that could only house up to sixty detainees.

The city government of Imus continuously provides good public service to its constituents with programs and projects that benefit the welfare of the people. (Ruel Francisco, PIA-Cavite)

SC disbars lawyer who snubbed suspension order for 11 years

MANILA — A lawyer who ignored for 11 years the order of the Supreme Court (SC) suspending him from the practice of law has been disbarred by the High Court.

In a decision released recently, the SC ordered Renato B. Pagatpatan disbarred following a complaint of Rev. Fr. Jose P. Zafra III.

Zafra had sued two of the wayward lawyer's clients but was made the subject of a letter complaint sent by Pagatpatan to the Bishop of the Diocese of Tandag, Surigao Del Sur.

A subsequent inquiry by the church later cleared Zafra, who then initiated the administrative complaint against Pagatpatan.

The lawyer turned out to have engaged in the unauthorized practice of law at the time, having been suspended by the court in another administrative case against him.

"Attorney Pagatpatan had been representing party litigants in court from 2005 until the case was filed before the IBP in 2016," said the SC, adding that the lawyer "made a mockery of this court's authority by defying this Court's suspension order for over eleven years".

"If Zafra had not filed the instance case, Attorney Pagatpatan would have continued disregarding the suspension order of this court," the tribunal said.

The SC found Pagatpatan guilty of simple misconduct and fined him PHP5,000 for unethical behavior over his letter against Zafra, and disbarred from the practice of law effective immediately.

"His actions clearly constitute gross misconduct which is a sufficient cause for suspension or disbarment," the tribunal explained. (PNA)

Kudos to PNP for peaceful elections for media workers: Egco

MANILA — Presidential Task Force on Media Security (PTFoMS) Executive Director Jose Joel Sy Egco on Thursday lauded the Philippine National Police (PNP) for the generally peaceful media environment during the last mid-term elections.

"Very few cases of media violence were recorded in the last political exercise. Historically, the exact opposite is the norm. We assumed that the peace and order situation for the last polls will not be any different from past elections," Egco said.

"But because of the proactive measures we took with the help of the PNP, there was hardly any major media violence case that happened. We commend the PNP and its leadership, as without their vigilance and dedication, this would not have been at all possible," he added.

Egco said one of the measures undertaken by the PTFoMS was his request to Albayalde to put all PNP units on heightened alert nationwide from May 10 to 15 to prevent violence against media workers "who are either running for office or covering the elections".

The PTFoMs chief said the local PNP units have been required to regularly apprise the Task Force "on cases of media violence or even the absence thereof".

Based on PTFoMS records, there were only three instances when the intervention of the Task Force has been sought in the recent national and local elections.

The Task Force received report about a photographer of a major daily who was reportedly mobbed by supporters of a mayoralty candidate after he took pictures on their alleged vote-buying activities.

The memory card of the media worker's camera was forcibly taken, prompting the PTFoMS to immediately order an investigation.

The Task Force also has also coordinated with the PNP to provide security for group of five journalists who felt they were in a "dangerous situation" while covering the elections in a certain province.

It also acted on a complaint by a GMA network stringer who said unidentified men wearing jackets and riding a motorcycle passed by along the highway and uttered to him in the vernacular the words "GMA patay ka na! Lumayas ka na!' (GMA your dead already, go away) while showing gesture of slashing his neck.

Egco said the Task Force has also immediately contacted the provincial police director in the area and "he responded quickly".

"The Task Force continues to closely monitor cases of media violence and is committed to fulfill its mandate to protect the life, liberty and security of media workers 24/7," Egco said. (PR)

DOE eyes 70% cap on power plants' contracting capacity by Q3

MANILA — Power producers in the Philippines will be required to have a 70-percent cap on their contracting capacities, likely by the third quarter of 2019, to ensure availability of buffer supply during times of need.

Department of Energy (DOE) Undersecretary Felix William Fuentebella, in a briefing Wednesday, said they are now in talks with all stakeholders for this policy.

"Soon…(We can release the Circular) in three months," he said.

The contracting capacity of a certain power plant is described as the portion of its expected total electricity output that can be sold in advance. By limiting the amount of power that can be pre-sold to only 70 percent, the DOE is assured that there will be 30 percent electricity remaining to tap for emergencies.

Fuentebella explained that this measure is aimed at ensuring that reserve electricity is available to fill a sudden power gap, such as when a power plant shuts down temporarily.

"There'll be no generator that will be a replacement every time. We will distribute the replacement," he said pointing out that the reserves can be sold through replacement power contracts or the spot market when reserves are low.

The DOE executive said this policy will cover new contracts, as well as those for renewal.

Currently, the Luzon grid is experiencing yellow and sometimes red alerts due to low power reserves.

Fuentebella said the Energy Department is working to prevent this kind of situation in the future "that's why we're coming up with better policies."

"Our experiences should push us to come up with better policies and we're pushing the 70 percent cap so that our power plants won't be strained so much and we would be able to address breakdowns," he added. (PNA)

Seek medical advice first before trying diet plans

MANILA — As various types of fad diets and fitness programs become a trend, a health expert on Thursday reminded the public on Thursday to consult a doctor first before trying these diets.

In an interview with the Philippine News Agency (PNA), Philippine Heart Association (PHA) president Nanette Rey said fad diets and fitness regimens can affect the condition of the heart if done without proper medical advice.

"Like ketogenic diet, it's a high-fat diet, and it does not discriminate on what fat you're taking, you could be taking the good fats and the bad fats. If you're taking it for three months, your cholesterol will go up, and if you're taking a lot of bad fats, it will deposit in the veins and they will block the veins," she said.

Citing intermittent fasting as another method of losing weight, Rey said it is not advisable for those who are diabetic and are taking medications.

"It will require you to fast for 16 hours which is too long for a diabetic patient. When a person goes under a diet or fitness regimen, it's always best to consult a doctor first. Find out what your risks are, which diet or fitness regimen would be best for you," she said.

In choosing a diet, Rey stressed the importance of sustainability and eating in moderation.

"In the long run, it is very seldom that you could sustain a fad diet, you can do that for two, four months or so but you can't sustain it for a long time. Each kind of diet has advantages and disadvantages, but generally taking more vegetables and less fats, that is much better than fad diets," she said.

Rey added avoiding sweets and fatty and salty foods remains the best way to achieve a healthy weight and heart. (PNA)

PhilHealth reminds public facilities to register Point of Service patients promptly

The Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth) reminds all concerned health care institutions (HCIs) to register their patients assessed as financially incapable (FI) under the Point of Service (POS) program within 72 hours from assessment so that their claims will not be denied.

The reminder was issued in the light of observations and reports that there are HCIs registering their patients assessed as FI thru the POS beyond the 72 hour requirement or sometimes even a month after discharge.

The POS is a program provided in the Government Appropriations Act (GAA) for the current year, to cover all Filipinos under the National Health Insurance Program (NHIP), including the unregistered and inactive registered members especially those who are financially incapable.

Filipino citizens who will be covered under the POS Program, must be admitted in a ward type of accommodation and classified as financially incapable to pay his/her PhilHealth contribution according to the DOH classification on indigents. Members availing of this program shall be included in the PhilHealth membership database for possible inclusion in the list of indigent beneficiaries whose premiums are to be shouldered by the National Government.

PhilHealth offices nationwide are ready to process the PhilHealth Identification Number (PIN) of patients enrolled as POS-FI immediately upon receipt of requests from public HCIs. Hence, HCIs are therefore encouraged to promptly register their FI patients to avoid denial of claims due to delayed issuance of PIN.

SC clears division lawyer of 'bogus resolutions' allegation

MANILA — The Supreme Court (SC) has cleared one of its division clerks of court who was named in a letter-complaint for alleged irregularities in the issuance of minute resolutions.

In an April 10 resolution released on Wednesday, the High Court's en banc said it dismissed the administrative complaint against SC 2nd Division Clerk of Court, lawyer Ma. Lourdes C. Perfecto, for lack of basis and ruled to "consider this case closed and terminated."

The tribunal said that the complainant, Alberto C. Yap, "failed to specifically aver and prove any misdeed that may have been committed by Atty. Perfecto."

The court explained that Yap's one-page letter failed to contain any elaboration on the alleged money-making modus operandi that Perfecto had employed in issuing the alleged bogus minute resolutions.

"Such bare allegations, without any iota of evidence, do not merit the Court's consideration," the court said, adding that it "finds as untenable" the complainant's allegation that Perfecto had issued bogus minute resolutions. (PNA)

Experts tackle medical care for elderly persons with cancer

MANILA — Medical experts, doctors, scientists, academics and political leaders in Asia Pacific countries convened on Wednesday to formulate medical care policies for countries with increased cancer cases among older populations.

In her keynote speech at the 2019 International Society of Geriatric Oncology (SIOG) policy meeting, Dr. Susan Pineda-Mercado, deputy secretary-general of the Philippine Red Cross, stressed that changes in the aging population's disease structure create the need for specific types of medical care in the country.

Citing that many among the elderly have cancer or are more prone to the disease, Mercado said the government must promote appropriate care for them.

"The medical care demand must be upgraded to one that will be suitable for an aged society diagnosed with cancer, addressing the needs of older people with cancer is not just about social justice — it is also our moral responsibility," she added.

According to the World Health Organization (WHO), aging people have high risk of cancer because of their unhealthy behaviors and lifestyles.WHO said the occurrence of cancer among elderly persons tends to increase with countries in Southeast Asia and Europe that are leading in morbidities.

In connection, WHO estimated that persons aged 60 and up will surpass the population of 10 years old and under by 2030 and by 2050 they will be 2.1 billion — outnumbering children who are 5 years old and below.

Mercado said based on these estimates of the Philippine Statistics Office there will be more than 8 million older Filipinos in the succeeding years.

"It comprise of 8.2 percent of the country's population, thereby placing the Philippines in the outset of an ageing population. The ageing of the population is irreversible, and it will continue to increase significantly," she said.

Meanwhile, Dr. Hans Wildiers, SIOG president, confirmed that cancer is "a disease of aging worldwide".

"But, even though older persons comprise the majority of cancer cases, they are more likely to receive less treatment and are under-represented in clinical trials," he said.

To properly address this issue, Wildiers enjoined the policy meeting participants to always refer to SIOG guidelines and educational tools that are essential to good clinical practice in geriatric oncology.

"The recognized need for enhancing clinical practices and research and education for the elderly population with cancer represents a new shift in thinking, with the objective being able to provide all countries with health capabilities to monitor, prioritize and maintain locally relevant, system integrated health research and clinical practices," Mercado said.She also enjoined the participants to a collaboration that would support individual researchers, institutions and governments in establishing well-designed and impactful international partnerships.

"Let us continue to demonstrate to policy makers how important such associations are for combatting cancer in the vulnerable elderly, as we seek improved access to infrastructure and funding for our partnerships," she added.

Held in Mandaluyong City on Monday, the SIOG Policy Meeting 2019 is a gathering of regional stakeholders, who share knowledge and experiences, to formulate policies for medical professionals and public health officials in providing better health care for the elderly with cancer. (PNA)

Ang Pilipinas ay naghost sa 30th SEA Games at nakakuha ng karagdagang suporta mula kay Pangulong Duterte

Pinasalamatan ni Chairperson Peter Cayetano, Tagapangulo ng Organisasyon ng Pilipinas Southeast Asian Games (PHISGOC) si Pangulong Duterte at ang Gabinete para sa kanilang napakalaking suporta upang mapalakas ang mga paghahanda sa SEA games at tiyakin ang pinakamataas na kalidad sa hosting ng international competition sa sports.

Ang mga pagpapaunlad na ito ay inaasahan na palakasin ang tiwala ng ating mga atleta at pukawin ang mga ito upang gawin ang kanilang makakaya sa sports.

"Pinasisigla kami ng suporta ng Pangulo at ng Gabinete. Sa panahon ng Cabinet briefing, nakatuon kami na magkamit ng best viewed at best hosting in SEA games, "sabi ni Cayetano.

Sa isang pulong ng Gabinete na ginanap kamakailan inihayag ni Cayetano ang mga update sa mga paghahanda para sa SEA games na gaganapin mula Nobyembre 30-Disyembre 11, 2019.

Tinanggap ng PHISGOC ang pag-apruba ni Pangulong Duterte ng karagdagang P1 bilyon na pondo para sa pag-host ng bansa sa 30th Philippine Southeast Asian Games.

Si Cayetano ay sumali sa Pangulo ng Bases Conversion Development Authority (BCDA), Vince Dizon at miyembro ng Executive Board at Chief Operating Officer ng PHISGOC na si Ramon Suzara. Sa pagtatanghal, binanggit nila na ang SEA games ay isang pagkakataon upang ipakita ang imahe ng isang bansa na ligtas, makulay at mapagkumpitensya.

"Ang Pangulo ay sumang-ayon na dagdagan ang kasalukuyang badyet ng mga laro ng SEA dahil naunawaan niya ang kahalagahan ng SEA games sa mga atleta ng Pilipinas at ang mga pangmatagalang benepisyo nito sa sektor ng turismo at ekonomiya sa bansa," sabi ni Cayetano.

Noong nakaraang taon, ang PHISGOC ay nagpanukala ng P7.5 bilyon upang pondohan ang mga gastusin na kakailangin. Para sa SEA games ngayong taon, magkakaroon ng 56 sports at 523 na mga kaganapan na lumahok sa 11,250 atleta at mga opisyal ng koponan sa 11 bansa. Gayunpaman, ang Kongreso ay nagbawas ng P2.5 bilyon mula sa iminungkahing badyet nito.

Sa pulong, tinalakay din na ang Department of Budget and Management (DBM) Procurement Service ay gumawa ng paraan upang mapabilis ang proseso ng pagkuha upang pahintulutan ang Philippine Sports Commission (PSC) na maging mas mabilis at mas mahusay na pagkuha ng mga suplay, sports equipment at kontratista ng serbisyo na tutugon sa mga pangangailangan ng SEA games.

"Sa pagtatalaga ng DBM Procurement Service bilang procuring entity, maaari nating tiyakin na ang bawat sentimo ng pera ng pamahalaan ay mahusay na nauugnay," sabi ni Cayetano.

VOTE BUYING MARS PEACEFUL MIDTERM POLLS IN CALABARZON

CAMP GEN. VICENTE LIM, Calamba City — Vote buying has marred the erstwhile peaceful conduct of Monday's midterm elections in the five vote-rich Calabarzon provinces of Cavite, Laguna, Batangas, Rizal and Quezon, according to the region's top police official here.

"Except for incidents of vote-buying, we are very thankful that the public have shown their support and cooperation with the authorities so that we could all have safe and peaceful elections," said Calabarzon Police Regional Director, Brig. Gen. Edward Carranza, on Tuesday.

The regional police command has set up its Regional Election Monitoring Action Center (REMAC) at the multipurpose center in this camp, and deployed 12,500 cops prior to Monday's polls.

"Our police personnel on the field and those who are under operational and administrative part of Police Regional Office Calabarzon had indeed work beyond what is expected from them. With the peaceful outcome of this year's election in all parts of the region, they are truly commendable," he said.

The Philippine National Police (PNP) is still placed under full alert status as the poll body conducts its transmissions of official results and the canvassing of votes.

Carranza said the REMAC has monitored around 14 incidents of vote buying where 32 suspected persons were arrested, including the confiscation of some PHP 426,000 in aggregate cash seized from vote buying suspects from Quezon, Laguna, Cavite, and Batangas.

Meanwhile, Carranza extended the regional police headquarters' expression of sympathy and condolence to a Batangas police officer who succumbed to a cardiac arrest while on poll duty on the eve of election.

"While it turn-out generally peaceful, we are very saddened by the loss of one of our men, Police Staff Sergeant Ramil Briones Dagle, member of Batangas City Police Station, who suffered from heart attack while rendering election duties at Soro Soro Karsada Elementary School, Barangay Soro Soro Karsada, Batangas City," he said. (PNA)

20 bagong mentees bahagi ng 3rd Batch ng Kapatid Mentor ME Program

MALVAR, Batangas (PIA)- Inilunsad ng Department of Trade and Industry (DTI)-Batangas ang ikatlong batch ng Kapatid Mentor Micro Enterprise (KMME) Program sa Occassions Garden, Lima Park Hotel sa bayang ito kamakailan.

May 20 bagong mentees ang ipinakilala kung saan sasailalim sila sa iba't-ibang modules na layong mapaunlad, mapalago at mas maiangat ang kanilang mga produkto upang mas maging competitive hindi lamang sa lokal na merkado kundi maging sa ibang bansa pagdating ng panahon.

Ayon kay DTI IVA Regional Director Marilou Toledo, patuloy ang kanilang mandato sa pagbibigay ng proteksyon sa lahat ng mga konsumidores at maging sa mga negosyante lalo na sa mga micro-small and medium enterprises.

"Ito po ang ikatlong batch ng KMME sa lalawigan ng Batangas at sa taong ito din ay inaasahan natin na maiilunsad ang ikaapat na batch, mas maraming sumasailalim sa programang ito,mas marami ang potensyal na negosyanteng magtagumpay at makilala hindi lamang sa lalawigan kundi maging sa ibang lugar at ibang bansa," ani Toledo.

Aniya, taong 2016 ng simulan ito sa NCR at Laguna at sa kasalukuyan ay marami ng mga entrepreneurs ang nakinabang dito.

Samantala, nagbahagi ng Go Negosyo at Kapatid Mentor Me Briefer si Henry Tenedero, President ng Philippine Marketing Association.

Kaugnay pa nito, nagbahagi sina Almira Silva, may-ari ng Mira's Turmeric Products at Angelica Monsale, may-ari ng Koibito's Artisinal Gelato,mga graduates ng KMME Program sa naunang dalawang batch ng kanilang mga karanasan kung paano nila sinimulan ang kanilang negosyo, mga naranasan nilang balakid at mga natutunan nila sa pagsailalim sa programa na ginawa nilang inspirasyon upang maitawid at mas maipakilala ang kanilang mga produkto sa merkado.

Ayon kay Silva, bukod sa pagsailalim sa KMME, nakikibahagi din sila sa mga iba't-ibang trade fairs sa tulong na rin ng mga kapwa mentees at ng DTI Batangas kaya't mas madali nilang maipakilala ang kanilang mga produkto. May mga kakilala,kamag-anak at kaibigan din sila na tumulong upang ipakilala ang produkto sa ibang lugar sa bansa.

Binigyang-diin pa nito na sa mga nagsisimulang magnegosyo,napaka-importante ng sipag at pasensya sa lahat ng bagay, dahil sa umpisa talagang mahirap ito lalo na at hindi pa kilala ang produkto o serbisyo ngunit kapag hinaluan ng tiyaga at determinasyon ay darating ang panahon na mabubuo ang lahat ng pangarap na pagtatagumpay sa negosyo.

PANGALUSIAN ISLAND, NAKAREMATE

Napagwagian ng kabayong si Pangalusian Island na sinakyan ng hineteng si Deo Fernandez ang ginanap na 3rd "Henry Cojuangco Cup". Ang nasabing kabayo ay pagmamay-ari ni Ginoong Wilbert T. Tan at kinondisyon naman ni Trainer Arthur Sagun. Sa naganap na labanan nila ay halos nakahawig din sa naunang tampok na pakarera, subalit ang panalo ni Pangalusian Island ay nanggaling pa sa pangalawa sa hulihan at nung sinimulang galawan ni Deo bago dumating sa tres oktabos (600 meters) ay halos kasabayan silang nagpakawala nung naliyamadong si Lemon Drop Title ni Oneal Cortez. Sa parteng iyan ng takbuhan ay naging maagap at matinding naisingit ni Deo si Pangalusian Island sa pagitan ng dalawang kalaban sa kanilang kaliwa't - kanan, Kaya nung makalusot ay kumamot na ng husto si kabayo at nagtuloy - tuloy mula sa ika- anim na puwesto habang nasa harapan pa nila sina Salt And Pepper, Sepfourteen, Anino, Certain To Win at ang nakasabayan ngang si Lemon Drop Title. Pagdating sa huling kurbahan ay may tatlong kabayong agwat na ang nasa unahang si Salt And Pepper kasunod sina Sepfourteen at ang dehadong si Certain To Win, sabay biglaang sungaw sa ika- apat na puwesto sa kalabas - labasan si Pangalusian Island na patuloy na inaayudahan ni Deo. Papasok sa huling 100 meters ay nakaramdam na ng pagod ang bumanderang si Salt And Pepper na sumiksik na sa may tabing balya, kaya nagkaroon ng malaking pagkakataon iyong tatlong kalaban na dumarating sa labas. Sa loob ng huling 75 o 50 meters ay mas naging kapana- panabik ang palitan ng mga palo at ayudahan, subalit sa sobrang lakas ng pag remate ni Pangalusian Island ay naungusan niya ang nasa gitnang si Certain To Win at nasa loob na si Sepfourteen. Para sa kumpletong datingan mula ikaapat ay sina Gomper Girl, Salt And Pepper, Mandatum, Lemon Drop Title, Electric Truth, War Dancer, Anino at Sooner Time. Nakapagtala ang tampok na pakarerang iyan ng 1:50.2 (10'-23'-24'-25'-27') para sa distansiyang 1,750 meters.

Dahil sa tagtuyot, Puerto Princesa, nagdeklara ng 'state of calamity'

PUERTO PRINCESA, Palawan (PIA) — Umabot sa13,089 na mga residente ng Puerto Princesa o katumbas ng 65,445 indibiduwal mula sa 21 barangay ang lubhang apektado ng 'Water Crisis Alert Level 3' dahil sa tagtuyot.

Ang naturang bilang ay katumbas naman ng 26 na porsiyento ng populasyon ng siyudad, na siyang dahilan ng Sangguniang Panlungsod upang magpasa ng resolusyon na nagdedeklara ng 'state of calamity'.

Ito ay kasunod ng naging rekomendasyon ng City Disaster Risk Reduction Management Council (CDRRMC) bunga na rin ng kahilingan ng Puerto Princesa City Water District (PPCWD) bunsod ng nararanasang krisis sa tubig.

Nilalayon din ng pagsasailalim sa nasabing estado na mapadali ang proseso ng pagsasagawa ng "cloudseeding" sa bahagi ng Campo Uno Dam sa Barangay Irawan sapagkat ayon sa pamunuan ng PPCWD ang hakbanging ito ay makatutulong sa pagbili ng iba pang mga kakailanganin para rito upang madagdagan ang suplay ng tubig sa pinanggagalingan nito.

Samantala, 30% mula sa pondo sa kalamidad ng siyudad ang gagamitin bilang ayuda sa PPCWD.

Sa ulat naman ng City Agriculture Office, umaabot sa 10 barangay ang naapektuhan ng tagtuyot na nagdulot ng pinsala sa mga pananim.

Ayon kay Enera Tuibeo, assistant city agriculturist, may kabuoang 5,768,088 ang nawala sa produksyong pang agrikultura ng lungsod mula noong Enero hanggang Abril dahil sa tagtuyot na nararanasan.

Base sa rekomendasyon ng CDRRMC, tatlo sa limang kondisyon ang pinagbatayan sa pagdedeklara ng nasa katayuang kalamidad. Kabilang na dito ang mahigit 20 porsiyento ng populasyon ang apektado, malawakang pagkasira ng mga pananim, at ang matinding epekto sa suplay ng tubig sa siyudad na nagdulot ng krisis. (LBD/PIA-MIMAROPA-Palawan)

92-anyos na lolo, nagbaril sa sarili

HINIHINALANG dahil sa matinding depresyon kaya nagbaril sa sarili ang isang 92-anyos na retired Architect sa loob ng kanilang bahay sa Alfonso, Cavite.

Kinilala ang biktima na si Celso, Tuazon, ng Lot 4 Block 33 Eisenhower, Royale Tagaytay Estate Subd., Alfonso.

Sa ulat ni PSSgt Boyet Soriano, ng Alfonso Municipal Police Station, dakong alas -6:20 ng gabi nang utusan ng biktima ang kanyang house boy na si Exequiel Selfedis, Jr. na kunin ang isang kahon at matapos iabot ay umalis na subalit ilang sandali pa ay nakarinig ito ng putok ng baril na nagmula sa kuwarto ng biktima.

Pinuntahan ni Selfedis ang kuwarto subalit sinabihan siya ng biktima na tini-testing lang ang baril kaya umalis din ito.

Nakalipas ang ilang minuto, muling nakarinig ng putok ng baril ang houseboy pero binalewala na lamang niya ito, pero nakalipas ang ilang minuto ay kinutuban ang huli kaya sinilip niya ang biktima sa kuwarto na nakitang nakahiga subalit inisip niyang natutulog lamang ito.

Gayunman, hindi mapakali ang houseboy kaya nag-text ito sa kapatid ng biktima at ikinuweto ang pangyayari.

Kaya sumugod ang kapatid ng biktima dakong alas-11:30 ng gabi at natuklasang wala ng buhay ang biktima.

Narekober sa tabi ng biktima ang isang kalibre 22 na may dalawang basyo at apat na bala.

Nang nalaman ng houseboy ang pagkamatay ng kanyang amo ay inatake ito sa puso at isinugod sa Tagaytay Hospital kung saan siya ginagamot.

"Nakonsensiya daw yung houseboy nang nalaman niyang nagpakamatay ang kanyang amo dahil siya ang nag-abot ng kahon na baril ang laman," ayon kay Soriano.

Matinding depresyon ang nakikitang motibo sa pagpapakamtay ng biktima gayunman, inaalam din kung may naganap na foul play. GENE ADSUARA

"CONGRATS"

Pagkatapos ng graduation ay kabi-kabila ang pagbabatian ng mga magkakaeskuwela o ng mga kapwa nagsipagtapos.

"Basta 'mamyang gabi eh 'dun tayo sa bahay nila Allan ah."

Ang isang section ay mayroong inihandang party o selebrayon para sa kanilang graduation.

"Ano bang course ang kukunin ninyo? Ako kasi business education."

Graduate sila ng high school kaya sa kanilang party ay kanya-kanyang tanong kung anong kurso ang kukunin sa kolehiyo.

"Ako walang kurso kasi 'di naman ako makakapag-college eh."

"Dito nga sa party natin eh wala akong naiambag kasi alam naman n'yong poor lang kami."

Hindi pa man sumasapit ang mismong graduation day ay napagkasunduan na ng magkakaklase ang kanilang party.

Ambagan sila sa gastos para sa handa at inumin pero isa si Alex sa hindi nakapagbigay ng pera.

Naiintindihan naman ng magkakaeskuwela ang kalagayan ni Alex.

Ang mahalaga lamang sa kanila ay makarating si Alex sa party kahit walang kontribusyong pera.

"Kung magkokolehiyo man ako eh malamang sa UP ako papasok."

"UP…yupian ng lata."

Kahit ganoon kasi si Alex ay masayang kasama dahil likas na palabiro.

"Ako eh gusto kong maging pulis kaya criminology ang kursong kukunin ko."

Si Allan ay malapit o close kay Alex, mas madalas ay silang dalawa ang magkasama.

"Tamang-tama 'di ba, 'pag pulis na si Allan eh siya na ang huhuli sa akin."

"Kasi baka maging kilabot na holdaper ako."

Tawanan ang magkakaeskuwela sa ginawang pagbibiro na iyon ni Alex.

Iba-ibang kurso ang nais ng mga magkakaklase sa pagpasok nila sa kolehiyo.

"Ako baka kagaya ni Alex, siguro 'di rin ako makakapag-college."

Mayroon din na hindi pa sigurado kung makakapagkolehiyo nga.

NAKAPUKAW ng pansin kay Bernie ang tinig ng isang magandang babae.

"Ang ganda-ganda talaga nito, tiyak ko na napakamahal nito. Akin ba talaga ito?"

Hindi pinagsasawaang pagmasdan ni Bernie ang babae na halos kaedad lamang niya.

Mayroong kasamang lalake ang babae na sa pagkakatingin ni Bernie ay kaedad naman ni Cecile.

Makisig ang lalake at kahit medyo may edad na ay lutang pa rin ang kagwapuhan.

Naninilaw ang buong katawan dahil sa mga gintong alahas na suot.

Hawak pa rin ng babae ang gintong pulseras at pagkaraan ay tumayo.

Lumapit ang babae at hinalikan ang lalake pero hindi nakita ni Bernie kung saan humalik.

Hindi sigurado si Bernie kung ang babae ba ay sa noo o sa pisngi humalik sa lalake.

"Excuse po."

Ang pagkukuwentuhan ng dalawa ay natigil dahil dumating na ang kanilang order.

"Okey na ito."

Tinanong ng serbidora kung okey na ang mga naorder at sumagot naman ang lalake na kumpleto na.

Kahit kumakain na ang dalawa ay sige pa rin si Bernie sa pagtingin sa babae.

"Madalas ang mga 'yan dito, suki na rin sila rito sa 'restoran ng auntie mo."

Hindi nakatiis si Bernie at kinausap ang kahera ng 'restoran.

Nagtanong subalit ang naisagot lamang sa mga tanong ni Bernie ay suki nga ng 'restoran ang dalawa.

"Ang lambing ng babae sa tatay niya."

Nagsasalita si Bernie pero hindi naman siya pinapansin at sinasagot ng kahera.

"Ah oo, madalas dito 'yun. Mabait 'yung lalake at galante pa kasi malaki mag-tip."

Nakaalis na ang dalawa kaya ang serbidora na lamang ang tinanong ni Bernie.

"Iba-iba ang ibinibigay ng lalake sa babae, minsan alahas pero mas madalas ay pera."

"Hula ko lang ay anak sa labas ng lalake ang babae na 'yun kaya rito sila sa 'restoran nagkikita."

"Dito sila nagkikita para mabigyan ng lalake ang anak niya ng allowance o ibang gamit."

May pagkatsismosa ang kahera at kung anu-ano ang mga ikinukuwento kay Bernie.

"Madalas sa akin napapatapat ang pagseserve sa mag-amang 'yun."

SC affirms CA ruling vs. AMWSLAI membership expansion

MANILA — The Supreme Court (SC) upheld a Court of Appeals (CA) decision stopping the Air Materiel Wing Savings and Loan Association, Inc. (AMWSLAI) from amending its by-laws to expand its membership base to include 24 additional agencies of the executive department.

AMWSLAI members consist of personnel of military and police personnel and their dependents.

The SC's Second Division said the appellate court did not commit any error in ruling that Regional Trial Court of Pasay City, Branch 119 (RTC) gravely abused its discretion when it granted AMWSLAI's petition for certiorari on Sept. 11, 2015 and issued a writ of preliminary injunction, preventing the Monetary Board of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP-MB) from implementing its June 26, 2015 denying AMSWLAI appeal to allow its expansion.

"As correctly ruled by the CA, AMWSLAI should have filed an appeal before it under Rule 43 of the Rules of Court (Rules) - and not a petition for certiorari before the RTC under Rule 65 of the same Rules - considering that the CA has appellate jurisdiction over resolutions of public respondent which are issued in the exercise of its quasi-judicial functions," the SC said.

"Accordingly, the RTC did not have jurisdiction to act on the above-mentioned certiorari petition, much more issue the ancillary writ of preliminary injunction against public respondent," it added.

In its June 29, 2018 decision by Associate Justice Maria Filomena Singh, the CA's Tenth Division granted the petition filed by the BSP-Monetary Board seeking the reversal of the Pasay RTC ruling in favor of AMWSLAI.

Under Republic Act No. 8367, otherwise known as the "Revised Non- Stock Savings and Loan Association Act of 1997," membership in Savings and Loan Associations (SLA), such as AMWSLAI must be limited to a "well-defined group."

The Monetary Board is vested with the authority to ensure that SLAs comply with this requirement.

However, in May 2014, AMWSLAI sent a letter-application to the Intergrated Supervision Department I (ISD) of the BSP for the approval of its proposed amendment to its by-laws to give way for the expansion of its membership to cover employees of 24 other agencies of the Executive Department, as well as their relatives by consanguinity and affinity. (PNA)

Calabarzon posts 7.3% economic growth for 2018

MALVAR, Batangas (PIA)- The economy of Calabarzon has accelerated from 6.7% in 2017 to 7.3% in 2018 based on the report conducted recently by Philippine Statistics Authority IVA at the Occassions Garden in Lima Park Hotel here.

According to PSA IVA Regional Director Charito Armonia, the acceleration was considered as the fastest in six years and was brought about by the growth of Industry and Services as well as the turn-around performance of Agriculture, Hunting, Forestry and Fishing (AHFF).

Out of the 7.3% growth, Industry remained the biggest contributor at 4.9% followed by Services with 2.4% and AHFF contributed the least with 0.03%.

Among the three major economic industries, Industry sector has the largest share at 62.3% of the region's economy followed by the Services sector with 32.9% and AHFF had the least share of 4.8%.

Compared to the report in 2017, Industry grew at a faster pace of 7.9% from 7.8% which was mainly driven by the upswing of the Manufacturing sub-industry to 8.0% from the previous 7.4%. Construction also contributed to the growth although it was recorded in 2017 to have a 15.6% growth slower than the 9.5% this year. Electricity, Gas and Water Supply posted a faster growth of 3.9% in 2018 from 3.4% in 2017. Mining and Quarrying accelerated to 3.5% in 2018 far from the 1.0% result in 2017.

Services sector expanded from 6.0 percent in 2017 to 7.1% in 2018 due to the faster growth of its sub-industries. From 8.9% in 2017 a big leap of 15.5% in 2018 was recorded on Public Administration and Defense, Compulsory Social Security. Other sub-industries which posted acceleration were Other Services with 11.0%; Financial Intermediation with 8.8%; Trade by 5.8% and Transportation, Storage and communication by 4.5%.

On the other hand, a slower growth from Real Estate, Renting and Business Activities was recorded from 6.0% in 2017 to 6.9% in 2018.

AHFF increased from 0.6% in 2017 to 0.7% in 2018 which is attributed to the growth of Agriculture and Forestry from 0.8% in 2017 to 2.7% in 2018. On the other hand, Fishing declined by negative 6.4% in 2018 from negative 5.4% in 2017. (Bhaby P. De Castro-PIA Batangas)

Utol, tinarakan ni kuya

SUGATAN ang isang 27-anyos na lalaki nang pagsasaksakin ng kanyang nakatatandang kapatid na nagalit dahil pinapangaralan ito sa Tagaytay City.

Kinilala ang biktima na si Deody Gonzales, may-asawa, ng Purok 121, Brgy Mendez Crossing East, Tagaytay City habang naaresto naman ang kanyang kuya na si Ronaldo Gonzales, 38, kapitbahay ng biktima.

Sa ulat ni PSSgt Ryan Bascugin, ng Tagaytay City Police Station, dakong alas-9:00 ng umaga nang puntahan umano ng suspek ang kanyang nakababatang kapatid at kinompronta ito na nagkaroon ng maaanghang na salita na nauwi sa mainitang pagtatalo.

Sa galit ng suspek ay sinuntok nito ang kanyang utol saka pinagsasaksak.

Nagsumbong naman ang asawa ng biktima sa pulisya dahilan upang arestuhin ang suspek.

Ayon kay Bascugin, pinagsabihan umano ng biktima ang kanyang kuya hinggil sa umano'y naririnig nitong balita na gumagamit ng illegal na gamot ang suspek na ikinagalit nito.

Slight physical injury at grave threat ang isinampang kaso laban sa suspek na kasalukuyang nakakulong sa Tagaytay Custodial Center. GENE ADSUARA

Duterte to visit Japan again this month

MANILA — President Rodrigo Duterte will visit Japan by the end of May to further enhance Philippine ties with the East Asian country, Malacañang said Tuesday.

Presidential Spokesperson Salvador Panelo confirmed Duterte's trip to Tokyo to reporters in a Palace briefing but has yet to confirm the exact date of his departure.

"Tinext ko si Chief Protocol Robert Borje, wala pa siyang sagot kung kailan, exact dates (I texted the Chief Protocol Robert Borje but he has not yet responded when, the exact dates)," Panelo said.

He said the invitation was brought to Manila by the representative of Prime Minister Shinzo Abe.

Earlier, Panelo bared that the President will attend the International Conference on the Future of Asia on May 30-31.

This will be Duterte's third visit to Japan since he assumed the presidency. He first visited Japan in 2016 and again in 2017.

Duterte earlier described Japan as "a true friend and proven partner" for its involvement in the Philippines' "Build, Build, Build" infrastructure program, including the construction of its first subway.

Japan has also committed to assist the Philippines in fighting terrorism and reconstructing war-torn Marawi City. (PNA)

CA STARTS HEARING ON AMPARO SUITS BY MILITANT LAWYERS

MANILA — The Court of Appeals (CA) on Tuesday held its first hearing for the petition for a writ of amparo lodged by a lawyer's group against the military, accusing the government of red-baiting.

Lawyers of the Office of the Solicitor General (OSG,) led by Assistant Solicitor General Angelita Villanueva-Miranda on the part of the government, and lawyer Rachel Pastores of the Public Interest Law Center (PILC) on the part of the petitioners, attended the hearing.

The hearing was presided over by members of the Special 15th Division led by division chairman Stephen Cruz and Associate Justices Pedro Corales and Hermano Legaspi as members.

The CA hearing was a preliminary conference to consider the possible stipulation of facts between the parties and set the dates for subsequent hearing.

The PILC, representing members of the National Union of Peoples' Lawyers, said it will present 10 witnesses to prove its case when the next hearing is held on June 4.

The OSG, meanwhile, said it will question the petitioners "locus standi" or legal standing to initiate the suit and will present five witnesses to present their side.

The CA was tasked by the Supreme Court to conduct hearings on the petition and to submit its report to the high court.

Present during the hearing were Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) Deputy Chief of Staff for Civil-Military Operations, Major Gen. Antonio Parlade Jr.; AFP spokesperson, Marine Brig. Gen. Edgard Arevalo; and Presidential Communications Operations Office Undersecretary Lorraine Badoy.

The government, through the National Task Force to End Local Communist Insurgency, is working to uncover organizations used as legal fronts of the terrorist Communist Party of the Philippines - New People's Army (CPP-NPA).

The CPP-NPA is listed as a terrorist organization by the United States, the European Union, the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and the Philippines. (PNA)

SC orders re-arrest of 2 suspects in US Marine's death

MANILA — The Supreme Court (SC) voided the downgraded sentence of probation handed down by a Makati court against the two individuals, who ganged up on and mauled to death George Anikow, a US Marine, in a street fight seven years ago.

In a two-page resolution dated March 27, the SC First Division affirmed the decision issued by the Court of Appeals (CA) in March last year and ordered the re-arrest of Galicano Datu III and Crispin dela Paz.

Reiterating the CA's decision on the matter, the High Court said: "(T)he Regional Trial Court of Makati City Branch 59 committed grave abuse of discretion amounting to lack or excess of jurisdiction when it granted petitioner's application for probation."

Makati City Branch 59 Presiding Judge Winlove Dumayas, who erroneously granted the application for probation, had earlier been ordered dismissed from the service by the court for downgrading the penalty against the two after finding them liable only for homicide instead of murder in 2014.

"The circumstances surrounding the killing of George Anikow showed the gravity of the crime and to grant probation to the perpetrators would clearly diminish its seriousness," the SC explained.

The tribunal noted that the trial court erroneously relied on the post investigation report of the Makati City Parole and Probation Office (MCC-PO) and failed to make its own determination.

In its March 2018 decision, the CA ruled that before granting probation, the court should consider the possibility of the offender to reform, together with the demands of justice and public interest, along with other relevant circumstances.

It noted that the application for probation is an admission of guilt on the part of an accused, however, Anikow's killers stood by their innocence, which is contrary to their availment of the benefits of probation.

Furthermore, the appellate court held that probation should have not been issued by the trial court since it would depreciate the seriousness of the crime committed by the two accused.

"The evidence at the trial established that Anikow was stabbed, kicked and punched multiple times, even after he had disengaged from his attackers and unable to defend himself or retaliate, resulting in his death. The nature of the crime of homicide and the manner of its commission is undoubtedly serious," it noted.

Anikow was stabbed to death in a brawl that happened outside the gate of Bel-Air subdivision near Rockwell Center, Makati City, on Nov. 24, 2012, when he confronted a group in a car trying to convince a guard to allow them to pass through the village gate. (PNA)

MAG-AMA, TINARAKAN NG KAANAK DAHIL SA PANGARAL

SUGATAN ang mag-ama nang pagsasaksakin ng kanilang kaanak matapos nagtalo dahil sa pangangaral sa Imus City, Cavite.

Kapwa ginamot sa Medical Center of Imus si Arnel Dasalla, 40, may-asawa, chef; at anak nitong si Christian, 14, kapwa residente ng Brgy Palico 3, Imus City, dahil sa saksak sa katawan.

Naaresto naman ang suspek na si Arman Pascua, 21, dish washer at pinsan ni Arnel, at ng naturang lugar.

Sa ulat ni PCpl Jessie Villanueva, ng Imus City Police Station, dakong alas-8:30 ng gabi nang naganap ang insidente sa loob ng bahay ni Arnel kung saan dinalaw siya ng kanyang pinsan.

Nag-inuman ang dalawa at sa kalagitnaan ng kanilang inuman ay naungkat ang ginawang pangangaral ng suspek kay Christian.

"Sinita ni Arnel ang pinsan nito kung bakit pinangangaralan ang kanyang anak," ayon kay Vilanueva.

Dahil dito, nagkaroon ng mainitang pagtatalo ang dalawa hanggang sa nakakita ng kutsilyo si Arman kaya pinagsasaksak si Arnel.

Tinangka namang tumulong si Christian sa kanyang ama subalit nagpagbalingan din siya ng suspek at sinasak din ito.

Isinugod ang dalawa sa ospital habang ang suspek ay naaresto. GENE ADSUARA

356 nabbed, P12-M seized in anti-vote buying ops: PNP

MANILA — The Philippine National Police (PNP) seized a total of PHP12.208 million in cash during operations against vote-buying across the country.

Based on the report from January 13 to May 14, authorities also arrested 356 persons in 225 reported vote-buying incidents nationwide.

The PNP said 85 suspects have been identified but they remain at large while eight minors have been "rescued" during the police operations.

The highest number of arrests were made in Metro Manila with 136 in nine reported incidents yielding PHP541,000 in total.

Of the total amount, Caraga Region has accounted for almost PHP8 million from 10 people apprehended, followed by Northern Mindanao with PHP1.12 million from 17 people arrested and Ilocos Region where 24 suspects yielded PHP561,000.

PNP spokesperson Col. Bernard Banac said the confiscated money have been submitted to prosecutors as evidence for criminal complaints filed against the suspects.

PNP chief Gen. Oscar Albayalde on Tuesday assured that they will further strengthen their capability to address vote-buying and selling activities in the next elections.

Albayalde said unlike the past years, the PNP now is more pro-active in apprehending personalities involved in vote-buying.

Albayalde admitted that there were reports of "massive" vote-buying during the May 13, 2019 elections.

"There are several factors on vote buying. First, our elections are automated. Seemingly, the Comelec (Commission on Elections) said the VCMs (vote counting machines) are incorruptible so the tendency is for the candidates to go directly to the voters. Another is that we haven't seen any candidate getting suspended or investigated for alleged vote buying," he said.

The PNP chief, however, admitted that allegations of vote-buying are hard to prove.

For his part, DILG Secretary Eduardo M. Año lauded the Task Force Kontra Bigay composed of the Comelec, DILG, PNP, and the National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) for their concerted effort to confront head-on the menace of vote-buying in our country.

He said the arrest of hundreds of perpetrators is an important step in reducing if not eradicating this clear affront to our democracy.

"I congratulate the Comelec for its decisive leadership and we look forward to working with them in future elections in the strict implementation of our election laws," he noted.

Año said that even as voting has concluded he strongly urged the public to continue to report cases of vote-buying by filling up the standard complaint form and submitting it, together with other pieces of evidence, to the nearest Comelec, PNP, or NBI office.

"The government needs your help to strengthen our democracy. To stop the menace of vote buying, the vigilance of the public is key," he said. (PNA)

'Kontra-vote buying'

ISANG araw (May 12) bago ang eleksiyon ay may nahuli sa akto na vote buying.

Ang nakahuli ng vote buying ay isang babaing kagawad at nakuha ang mga ebidensiya kabilang ang pera.

Malaking pera o halaga sana ang makukumpiska subalit nagawang makatakbo at makatakas ng dalawa pa.

Ang isa sa kanila ang siyang may hawak ng malaking pera na dapat ay ibabayad o ibibigay doon sa mga pangalang nakalista sa papel.

Ibig sabihin ay tatlo ang nagmamanipula ng vote buying subalit isa lamang ang nasakote ni kagawad at kanyang mga kasama.

Ilang mamamahayag mula sa iba't ibang Media entity ang nagtungo sa lugar at nakuhanan ng video at pahayag ang isang nahuli ganoon din ang listahan at pera.

Maganda sana at ilang hakbang lamang sa lugar ay may mga nakadeploy na pulis subalit hindi pinansin ang vote buying dahil kaya raw naroon sila ay dahil sa kanilang ibang operasyon.

Dinala nina kagawad ang isang nahuli sa vote buying sa isang istasyon ng pulisya.

Pero sa huli ay humantong din sila sa mismong police headquartes na sumasakop sa pinangyarihan ng vote buying.

Heto ngayon ang naging senaryo, ang kagawad at kasama nito ay mukhang mababaligtad pa.

May dumating na dalawang abogado ang nahuli sa vote buying.

Mahusay sina 'atorni dahil may mga kasong nakahanda laban kina kagawad.

Kumbaga ay counter-counter charge ang kinalabasan na ang kinahinatnan ay settlement na lamang.

Urong ang demanda nina kagawad laban sa isang nahuli sa vote buying.

Urong din ang demanda ng dalawang abogado laban kina kagawad.

Ang siste kasi kapag hindi pumayag sina kagawad ay kasama sila ng nahuli sa vote buying na madedetine sa police headquarters.

Ang tanong, sino ang talagang nasa likod ng vote buying at agad-agad ay may dalawang abogado na sumulpot para i-rescue ang isang nahuli?

Hindi na ako nagbanggit ng mga pangalan at maging ng lugar ng pinangyarihan dahil nagkasundo na ang dalawang panig.

Ang nahuli ay may binanggit na pangalan ng pulitiko na aniya ay nasa likod ng vote buying.

Kaya pala medyo mabagal o pinabagal ba ng kapulisan doon ang aksiyon ng kagawad dahil ba nasa proseso pa ng komunikasyon doon sa nakaupong pulitiko?

Kayo na po ang magtimbang-timbang ng opinyon at reaksiyon.

O hayan at may natutuhan kayo mga tiwaling kandidato o pulitiko, sa susunod na eleksiyon at paiiralin ang vote buying ay ganoon pala ang mabisa at epektibong pangontra.

Mayroon ng kontra-vote buying, hehehe.
