Yaman ng Kalusugan Program, ipinaliwanag ng PhilHealth IV-A sa 'Dasma, Cavite...

'WAG HINTAYIN MAGKASAKIT 'MAGPAYAKAP' SA YAKAP

ISINAGAWA ang pulong talakayan ng PhilHealth Regional Office IV-A, sa ilalim ng superbisyon ni Edwin M. Oriña (MD) acting Regional Vice President, para sa pagpapaliwanag ng 'Yakap sa Kalusugan Program' nitong Setyembre 18 na ginanap sa auditorium ng Dasmariñas City Hall sa Cavite.

Maihalalintulad ito sa pagyakap ng isang ina sa kanyang anak upang proteksiyunan ang kalusugan o sa amba ng ano mang uri sakit.

Ibinubukas sa kaisipan ng bawat indibidwal na huwag ng hintayin pang magkasakit bago magpakonsulta sa manggagamot bagkus ay magpayakap sa nasabing programa.

Ganito umikot ang talakayan na pinangunahan nina Arturo C. Ardiente, hepe ng Field Operations Division; Ma. Obelia M. Fontanilla, hepe ng Local Health Insurance Office- Dasmariñas City; at Benjamin Rodil, hepe ng LHIO-Trece Martires City sa kanilang pagharap sa mga mamamahayag.

Ipinabatid nila na ang YAKAP ay nakalaan sa lahat, bata o matanda at maging mayaman man o mahirap, na bukod sa libre pa o walang kaukulang bayad kaya hindi dapat sayangin ang oportunidad. Kinakailangan lamang magpatala at ang unang hakbang ay ang pagkuha ng PhilHealth Identification Number (PIN) na maaaring gawin online sa pamamagitan ng PhilHealth Member Postal o kaya naman ay ang pagtungo sa ano man PhilHealth Local Health Insurance Office.

Kung ikaw naman ay rehistrado ng miyembro ng PhilHealth ay isagawa na kaagad ang ikalawang hakbang at ito ay ang pagpapatala sa PhilHealth YAKAP sa pamamagitan ng eGovPH app o sa mapipiling YAKAP clinic na ang listahan ng mga klinika ay makikita sa naturang aplikasyon.

Ikatlong hakbang ay ang pagtungo sa YAKAP clinic batay sa kung saan ka nakarehistro o nakapagpatala upang magamit na ang benipisyo na sisimulan sa pagpapakonsulta sa nasabing klinika.

Kung sa konsultasyon ay mayroong reseta ang doktor ay magtutungo sa GAMOT provider o botika na may P20,000 na halaga na makukuha para lamang sa loob ng isang taon.

Sakali naman na may pagsusuri sa laboratory ay pupunta sa YAKAP clinic na kung hindi man available ang klinika ay papupuntahin sa kapartner na diagnostic o laboratory clinic.

Sa ikaapat na hakbang ay ipinaliwanag ang kahalagahan pagpunta sa YAKAP clinic para sa follow-up upang nababantayan ang kondisyon ng pasyente gayundin ang mga gamot na isinasaalang-alang.

Tiniyak naman ng mga opisyal ang presensiya ng mga manggagamot.

Dahil ang YAKAP ay para sa lahat na ang misyon ay mailayo sa sakit ang bawat Pilipino ay kasama rin na 'niyakap' ng PhilHealth ang mga persons deprived with liberty (PDL) na matagal na rin isinasakatuparan ng ahensiya.

Nabatid na ito ay nasimulan na sa nasabing lalawigan at sa ilang lugar sa rehiyon ng Cavite, Laguna, Batangas, Rizal, Quezon o CALABARZON region sa pakikigtulungan ng Bureau of Jail Management and Penology.

Bunga na nasa loob ng piitan ang mga PDL ay ang PhilHealth mismo ang lumalapat at nagtutungo upang mayakap sila sa nasabing programa.

Ang pamahalaang lungsod ng Dasmariñas sa ilalim ng liderato ni Mayor Jennifer Barzaga ay buo ang suporta sa magandang inisyatibong ito ng PhilHealth.

Matatandaan sa ikaapat na State of the Nation Address ni Pangulong Ferdinand 'BongBong' Marcos Jr. ay naipagmalaki nito ang tungkol sa Universal Health Care at ang magagandang programa ng PhilHealth.

Kasunod nito ilang araw pagkalipas ng SONA ay pormal na inilunsad ang PhilHealth YAKAP na personal mismong pinangunahan ni Pangulong Marcos Jr./ RS

Dapat ng ibalik ng bansa ang independiyenteng patakarang pang labas

Ang Asian Century Philippines Strategic Studies Institute (ACPSSI), isang geopolitical think tank, ay tumalakay sa Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) at ang Global Governance Initiative: Ang Dilemma ng Pilipinas, na nagsasabing dapat nang ibalik ng bansa ang isang independiyenteng patakarang panlabas.

Sa ginanap na media forum, sinabi ni ACPSSI President Herman "Ka Mentong" Tiu Laurel na sila ay nasa Cebu para sa anti-digmaan at Kongress ng Mamamayan sa nakaraang ilang linggo sa Davao para sa isa pang Kongress ng Mamamayan. "Sa kabila ng mga isyu tungkol sa mga pinaghihinalaang anomalya sa gobyerno, ang ACPSSI ay may obligasyong ipagpatuloy ang kanyang misyon na ipakalat at tumutok sa mga kaganapang geopolitikal na may epekto sa Pilipinas," sabi ni Laurel.

"Sa unang linggo ng Setyembre 2025, nalampasan ng kasaysayan ng tao ang isang kritikal na yugto na nagbabago ng kanyang kapalaran sa susunod na isang daang taon: sumali ang India sa Shanghai Cooperation Organization Tianjin," dagdag pa niya.

Ang batayan ng SCO Summit 2025 ay ang lahat ng mga bansa, kahit malaki o maliit, ay pantay-pantay ang lahat," sabi ni Laurel. Ilang araw matapos ang SCO Tianjin Summit, ang BRICS ay humayon nag suplay ng humigit-kumulang 40% ng langis, gas, at nababagong enerhiya sa mundo.

Ang tagumpay ng SCO at BRICS sa ilalim ng pangangalaga ng Tsina. Binanggit ni Laurel ang ulat ng Politico na may petsang Sept. 5, 2025 na nagsasabing inuuna ng Pentagon ang seguridad ng bayan kaysa sa banta ng Tsina.

Binanggit din niya ang krisis sa Pilipinas noong Setyembre 2025 at ang unipolar na mundo ng US kung saan ang GDP bawat tao ay nahuhuli sa orihinal na ASEAN 5 na Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, at Indonesia; humaharap sa banta ng seguridad na mga payo sa paglalakbay mula sa South Korea, U.S., Australia, China, Japan, na nagresulta sa pinakamahina na sektor ng turismo sa ASEAN; humaharap sa muling sumiksik na mga insurgency; lumalaking banta ng tensyon sa seguridad na dulot ng estratehiyang ipinataw ng US; at isang sumasabog na sosyal na bulkan.

Sa isang opisyal na pahayag mula sa Senado na petsado noong Nobyembre 10, 2015, sinabi ni Laurel, "ang Senado: Ang EDCA ay isang ipinagbabawal na kasunduan kung saan sa pagboto 15-1-3, inampon ng mga Senador binanggit ang resolusyon ni Sen. Miriam Defensor Santiago na nagpapahayag ng matinding sentimento ng Senado na, sa kawalan ng kanilang pagsang-ayon, ang Enhanced Defense Cooperation Agreement (EDCA) ay isang kasunduan na ipinagbabawal sa ilalim ng Konstitusyon." Gayunpaman, 10 taon pagkatapos, sinabi ni Laurel, naging priyoridad ng Marcos ang pagsugpo sa patakarang panlabas.

Hubaran ng 'maskara' ang mga sangkot sa anomalya

BUO na ang Independent Commission for Infrastructure President na nilikha ni Pangulong Ferdinand 'Bongbong' Marcos Jr. sa ilalim ng Executive Order No. 94 na inisyu nitong Setyembre 11. Nakatutok ito sa imbestigasyon ng maanomalyang flood control at iba pang infrastructure projects. Ang chairperson ng ICI ay ang retiradong Supreme Court Associate Justice Andres B. Reyes Jr. at ang dalawang miyembro ay sina former Department of Public Works and Highways Secretary Rogelio Singson at SGV and Co. Country Managing Partner Rossana Fajardo habang si Baguio City Mayor Benjamin Magalong ay magsisilbing Special Adviser at aaktong imbestigador. Matagal din hinintay ng publiko ang nasabing independent investigative body at muli ay ang paghihintay na naman ng taumbayan sa kalalabasan ng imbestigasyon. Nakararaming Juan dela Cruz ang naniniwala na may mga kawani at opisyal ng pamahalaan ang sangkot sa anomalya maging ang ilang indibidwal. Higit salahatayang pananaw ng nakararami na mayroong mga mambabatas o pulitiko na nasa likod ng anomalya. Sumasandal ang mamamayang Pilipino sa ICI kaakibat ang paniwalang mahuhubaran ng maskara ang mga sangkot sa anomalya lalo na ang ilang pulitiko. Harinawa ay gawin ito ng ICI.

'Ang lupit kapag naipilit'

NALALAPIT na rin ang pagsusumite ng Judicial Bar Council ng shortlists na pagpipilian ni Pangulong Bongbong Marcos Jr. para maging bagong Ombudsman. Sa paningin at pananaw ng nakararami ay si Justice Secretary Boying Remulla ang sadyang napipisil at pipiliin ng Chief Executive. Ang katanungan ng madla ay matutupad kaya ito? Hindi naman lingid sa kaalaman ng publiko ang kasalukuyang sitwasyon na kinakaharap ni Remulla. Lalo pa at may hiwalay o personal na isinumiteng kaso ang anak ni dating Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte laban sa kanya. Kabilang sa banat ng kalihim na ito umano ay double jeopardy at forum shopping pero mayroon naman depensa o tugon ang mga kampo ng Duterte. Speaking of forum shopping ay mayroon tuloy akong biglang naalala. Ako at ilang kasamahan sa hanapbuhay ay 'inulan' ng mga kaso na isinampa sa mga piskalya sa iba't ibang lalawigan o lugar. Iba-ibang indibidwal o tao ang nagkaso sa amin subalit lahat naman ay pawang nabasura sa mga piskalya. Dati ko ng naririnig ang katagang forum shopping subalit mas aking naunawaan ang kahulugan nito dahil nga sa mga isinampang kaso sa amin. Mainam din na tayo ay nagkakaroon ng dagdag na kaalaman upang mulat sa mga kaganapan sa ating bayan o paligid partikular na may kinalaman sa usaping batas kahit isang abogado. Balikan natin ang tungkol sa isyu ng next Ombudsman, may tsansa pa ba talaga si Sec Boying sa naturang posisyon? Ako ay may sariling pananaw hinggi dito pero akin na lamang iyon dahil hindi naman abogado ang inyong lingkod para maglahad. 'Ang lupit kapag naipilit' Hindi pa man ay ganyan na ang impresyon ng karamihan pero maghintay na lamang tayo ng magiging kaganapan.

nasa likod ng nakawan. Kumbaga ay mastermind. Mare: Aba, maganda 'yun kasi matutumbok at mahuhuli ang utak ng nakawan.

Tess: 'Yan ngayon ang problema at 'yan ang dahilan bakit marami ang nawawalan ng pagkabilib kay Rico.

Mare: Sa anong dahilan naman?

Tess: Di raw credible ang testigo sabi ni Rico dito sa lugar natin. Parang sinasabi ni Rico na siya ang dapat pakinggan at paniwalaan kesa 'dun sa testigo.

Mare: Parang mali naman 'ata. Porke pinupuri at kinabibiliban si Rico dito sa lugar natin ay hindi na kailangan ang testigo sa paglutas ng kaso.

Tess: Korek, kaya 'yun ang dahilan kaya nababawasan na ang mga umiidolo kay Rico.

Mare: Para bang gustong palabasin at pamukhain ni Rico na siya lang ang tama.

Tess: 'Yun bang gusto rin 'ata ni Rico na ipamukha dito sa lugar natin na siya ang nagsasabi ng totoo.

Mare: Tapos 'yung testigo ay ang sinungaling, ganon ba?

Tess: Mismo! Ang gusto lang naman mangyari ng mga tao dito sa lugar natin ay baka naman makatulong 'yung testigo.

Mare: Malay nga natin, baka sa pagbubunyag ng testigo ay talagang mahahantad ang utak sa nakawan.

Tess: Ewan ko ba 'dyan kay Rico, kaya hayun bukod sa nababawasan na ang mga panatiko sa kanya ay kung anu-ano tuloy ang iniisip.

Mare: Anyway, hintay na lang tayo sa kahihinatnan ng imbestigasyon. Sana lang ay walang hokuspokus na imbestigasyon at walang pinapanigan o pinagtatakan ang mga nag-iimbestiga.

--- Wakas ---

Mahirap madetermina kung sino ang totoo o singungaling sa gumugulong na imbestigasyon lalo at nagkakaroon ng pagtatakip sa hanay ng gumagawa ng pagsisiyasat.

Kwento ni CHIT MOZO

Nababawasan umiidolo kay 'Rico'

Mare: Bakit parang galit na galit ka ata ah, ano ba ang dahilan ha?

Tess: 'Di naman ako galit, asar lang ako. Kakagigil at kakadismaya 'yang si Rico.

Mare: Ano naman ang problema kay Rico? Alam mo naman na 'mabango' si Rico dito sa lugar natin at pinupuri.

Tess: Hay naku Mare, mukhang huli ka na naman 'ata sa latest na tsika dito sa atin ah.

Mare: Alam mo naman na ikaw lang ang palagi kong katsikahan dito sa atin eh. Share mo nga kung ano na 'yun?

Tess: Nababawasan na ang mga pumupuri kay Rico. Dumarami na kasi ang nag-iba ang tingin at pananaw sa kanya. Nawawala na ang pagkabilib kay Rico ng karamihan dito sa atin.

Mare: Eh bakit naman? Ano ang dahilan?

Tess: Natatandaan mo ba na nagkaroon ng matinding nakawan dito sa lugar natin? Tumindig at nagsalita si Rico kaya hayun at nahuli ang mga sangkot sa nakawan.

Mare: Yes, I know. Actually eh napabilib nga din ako kay Rico.

Tess: Bilib din naman ako kay Rico dahil 'dun. Halos lahat nga tayo ay bilib sa kanya.

Mare: Under investigation 'yun 'di ba? Ano na ba ang development sa imbestigasyon?

Tess: May lumutang na testigo, may tinuturong

LEGARDA, KINILALANG IKA-83
LEE KUAN YEW EXCHANGE FELLOW,
IKALIMANG PILIPINO MULA 1991

Kinilala si Senador Loren Legarda bilang ika-83 Lee Kuan Yew Exchange Fellow, at naging ikalimang Pilipino na tumanggap ng prestihiyosong pagkilalang ito mula nang itatag ang Fellowship noong 1991. Ang Fellowship ay isang pribado, non-political at non-profit na organisasyon na nagbibigay-pugay sa unang Prime Minister ng Singapore, na si Ginoong Lee Kuan Yew.

Inaanyayahan ng Fellowship ang mga natatanging indibidwal mula sa iba't ibang panig ng mundo na ang mga gawa ay nagsusulong ng pambansang kaunlaran at pandaigdigang pagkakaisa. Layunin nitong lumikha ng makabuluhang talakayan, pagbabahagi ng kaalaman, at pagpapalalim ng ugnayang internasyonal sa pagitan ng Singapore at iba pang mga bansa.

Inaasahang magkakaroon ng isang digital revolution ang Pilipinas sa pagsasabatas ng E-Governance Law (Republic Act No. 12254), isang panukalang isinulong ni Senate Minority Leader Alan Peter Cayetano bilang susi tungo sa mas mahusay na serbisyong publiko. Sa isang pahayag, sinabi ni Cayetano na layunin ng bagong batas na hindi lang makahabol ang bansa kundi manguna sa e-governance sa digital age.

“Only God knows the limitation on e-governance. Halos unlimited ang opportunities. Think of it and it can be done. Gusto niyo ng e-payments, transactions na walang pila, na gamitin ay isang app lang, facial recognition — magagawa po ito sa bagong batas,” wika ni Cayetano nitong September 11, 2025.

Bilang bahagi ng Lee Kuan Yew Exchange Fellowship, bumisita si Legarda sa Singapore at nakipagpulong sa mga matataas na opisyal ng pamahalaan, kabilang sina Deputy Prime Minister at Minister for Trade and Industry Gan Kim Yong; Minister for Foreign Affairs Dr. Vivian Balakrishnan; at Minister for Sustainability and the Environment and Trade Relations Grace Fu. Nagbigay rin siya ng public lecture sa ISEAS–Yusof Ishak Institute, sa ilalim ng Philippine Studies Programme at Climate Change in Southeast Asia Programme.

“Lubos kong ikinararangal ang mapabilang sa hanay ng mga lider na nag-ambag sa pambansang kaunlaran at pandaigdigang pagkakaisa,” pahayag Legarda. “Ang Fellowship na ito ay pagkakataon upang magpalitan ng kaalaman ukol sa pamahalaan, pagpapanatili ng kalikasan, at katatagan. Bitbit ko ang mga kwento ng sambayanang Pilipino, at sabik akong matuto mula sa bisyon ng Singapore habang ibinabahagi rin ang ating karanasan sa aksyon sa klima at katatagan ng kultura.”

Bilang four-term na senador, kinikilala si Legarda bilang isa sa mga pangunahing tagapagtaguyod ng kapaligiran, aksyon sa klima, kultura, at katatagan sa Pilipinas. Sa ilalim ng Fellowship, inaasahan siyang makibahagi sa mga talakayan ukol sa climate resilience, sustainable development, edukasyon, at rehiyonal na kooperasyon, na mag-aambag sa layunin ng ASEAN para sa isang mas inklusibo at matatag na kinabukasan, habang pinapalalim ang ugnayan ng Pilipinas at Singapore.

“E-Governance is not per se the solution to all of our problems. But it is a tool that, if used effectively and assigned properly to various agencies, can address many of our challenges today,” dagdag niya.

DOST Region 2, COA Visit SET-UP Assisted MSMEs in Quirino

The Department of Science and Technology Regional Office II (DOST RO2), in collaboration with the Provincial Science and Technology Office–Quirino (PSTO-Quirino) and the Commission on Audit (COA), conducted a monitoring visit to Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) supported under the Small Enterprise Technology Upgrading Program (SETUP) in Quirino Province. The visit focused on equipment tagging and validation to ensure proper use of the technologies provided, while also assessing their initial impact on business operations. A total of five (5) MSMEs were monitored, with around ₱3 million in assistance granted through SETUP. SETUP is a flagship program of DOST that helps MSMEs enhance competitiveness through technology upgrades, expert consultations, and other S&T interventions. By offering these resources, the program supports local businesses in improving productivity, building resilience, and achieving sustainability. During the visit, Mr. Raffy Malazzab, a COA Audit Team Member, noted the positive outcomes of the program. One notable success story came from Mr. John Albert Mandac, owner of OCM Furniture Shop, who reported a 20% increase in sales after acquiring DOST-supported equipment, citing significant improvements in speed and efficiency. “Simula po nang magamit namin ang mga assisted-technologies mula sa DOST, tumaas po ng 20% ang aming sales dahil sa mas mabilis at maayos na proseso ng aming mga produkto.”, Mr. Mandac said. This monitoring visit underscores DOST's ongoing commitment to helping MSMEs thrive through innovation, ensuring that the businesses in Quirino continue to grow and become more competitive in the market.

OF NULLITY OF MARRIAGE

Petitioner, ALFREDO L. MONTEAGUDO, through the undersigned counsel, and unto this Honorable Court most respectively states:

I. PETITIONER PROPER

1. Petitioner ALFREDO L. MONTEAGUDO is of legal age, Filipino, married, and with a residence address in the Philippines at Lot 1, Block 3, Villa Amparo Subdivision, Bayan Luma IV, Imus City, Cavite. To prove Petitioner's residency, a copy of his Barangay Certificate of Residency is hereto attached as Annex "A". The lease Contract, Tax Identification Number ID as supporting documents to prove Petitioner's residency are also attached as Annexes "B" and "C" respectively.
2. Respondent JULIETA “MARIEJU” MONTEAGUDO¹ is of legal age, married, Filipino, with residence address at No. 88, Bagong Barrio, Caloocan City, where she may be served with summons and other processes of this Honorable Court.
3. Petitioner and Respondent are husband and wife, having been married in a civil wedding held May 3, 1983 as evidenced by their Certificate of Marriage, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex "D" and made an integral part hereof.
4. Their union was blessed with 1 child, JENNIFER MONTEAGUDO. A copy of the Certificate of Live Birth is attached hereto as Annex "E"

5. Five days after wedding, Petitioner went abroad in 1983. The Petitioner and the Respondent never lived together as husband and wife. They communicated for a year through letters while the Petitioner was working abroad;

6. They separated five days after their marriage and never lived together as husband and wife.
7. As will be shown hereunder, prior to, during, and subsequent to the celebration of their marriage, Petitioner and Respondent are both psychologically incapacitated to comprehend and assume the essential obligations of marriage. Hence, this petition for the nullity of their marriage.

FACTS OF THE CASE

8. Petitioner is the eldest among six (6) children of Salome and Santiago Monteagudo, both deceased. His father died from hypertension, and his mother, a chronic smoker, died from complications related to asthma and tuberculosis.
9. Petitioner was raised in a financially unstable household in a rural setting, where his family relied on subsistence farming, primarily planting corn and tobacco. These endeavors were sufficient to meet the family's basic needs, including the educational aspiration of the children.
10. From a young age, the Petitioner was burdened with responsibilities far beyond his years. As the eldest child, he was expected to assist his parents in the labor-intensive tasks of planting and harvesting crops, which disrupted his education. His schooling was frequently interrupted by his father's insistence that he skip classes to help on the farm.
11. In 1983, the Petitioner secured employment as a security guard with the Tierra Company in Makati, Rizal. During his period, Respondent Juliet "Marieju" Monteagudo worked as domestic helper in a nearby subdivision.
12. The Petitioner and Respondent were introduced by mutual acquaintances – other domestic helpers and security guards working within the subdivision. The Respondent would frequently pass by the Petitioner's post, greeting him in the process.
13. Over time, a casual friendship developed between the Petitioner and Respondent, eventually leading to the Petitioner jokingly expressing a desire to court the Respondent. The Respondent agreed, and they soon began dating. Within a month, their relationship progressed into that of a boyfriend and girlfriend.
14. Due to their work schedules, they only saw each other when leaving the subdivision.
15. While boyfriend-girlfriend, it did not take long for Petitioner to take the initiative, and his sexual advances were readily reciprocated by Respondent. Their first instance of sexual intercourse took place at the Respondent's workplace. The Petitioner would visit the Respondent at the house of the latter's boss. Sometimes, the Respondent would visit the Petitioner at a relative's house in JP Rizal, where they engaged in a premarital relationship
16. The frequency of their intimate encounters eventually led to the Respondent's pregnancy. The news of this pregnancy came as a shock to the Petitioner, who was unprepared for the responsibility of fatherhood. At the time, the Petitioner was not serious about his relationship with the Respondent, as he was involved with other women.
17. In the eight month of Respondent's pregnancy, the Petitioner's sister, Victoria Monteagudo Verona, who was working as a domestic helper for a wealthy employer in Gamu, Isabela, informed the Petitioner of a job opportunity abroad as a waiter. The position was offered by a company contracted to provide services in Diego Garcia, California, USA.
18. The Petitioner applied for and successfully secured the position. Before leaving the country, the Petitioner accompanied the Respondent back to her family's home in Talisay, Negros Occidental, where she was to stay and give birth to their child while he was abroad.
19. Upon their arrival in Talisay, the Respondent's parents arranged for the couple's marriage. The Petitioner felt compelled to comply, as the Respondent's father had threatened his life if he refused to marry the Respondent.
20. The marriage ceremony, which took place at 3 May 1983, was organized hastily. Respondent's parents enlisted individuals to act as guardians for the Petitioner, facilitating the civil wedding officiated by the Municipal Trial Judge.
21. The Petitioner felt trapped and fearful for his life, with no alternatives or options available to him in the situation. Consequently, he reluctantly agreed to the marriage.
22. The Petitioner's family, including his parents and siblings, were unaware of the wedding that took place in Talisay. The petitioner did not inform them of the marriage, given the circumstances surrounding it.
23. Five days after the wedding, the Petitioner returned to Manila to prepare for his departure abroad. He left the Philippines later that same year.
24. The Respondent gave birth to their daughter, Jennifer, on June 4, 1983. For the following year, the Petitioner and Respondent maintained communication through letters while the Petitioner was abroad and the Respondent remained in Talisay with their child.
25. In 1984, the Petitioner returned to the Philippines for a brief vacation but chose not to visit the Respondent and their child in Negros. Instead, he went directly to his parent's home in Gamu, Isabela, as he longed to see them after several years of absence.
26. The Petitioner spent two weeks in Gamu before returning to Manila and then to Olongapo to finalize paperwork for his return abroad. His vacation was brief, and he did not attempt to reconnect with the Respondent or their child.
27. The Respondent, upon hearing the Petitioner's vacation in 1984, travelled to Olongapo in an attempt to find him. During this time, she left their daughter in the care of her parents in Talisay.

28. While in Olongapo, the Respondent applied for a job and met a man named Noli Baje Opanda, a native of Samar, with whom she began an extramarital affair.
29. The Respondent's relationship with Mr. Opanda progressed rapidly. By October 1985, the Respondent was pregnant with Mr. Opanda's child whom sha gave birth in July 1986.
30. The Petitioner eventually learned of the Respondent's affair and the birth of her child with Mr. Opanda. This revelation devastated the Petitioner, who had hope to reconcile with the Respondent upon his return to the Philippines.
31. The Respondent and Mr. Opanda continued their relationship and eventually married on 18 December 1994, further solidifying the Respondent's departure from her marriage with the Petitioner. A copy of the Certificate on Advisory of Marriage issued by the Office of the Civil Registrar is attached herewith as Annex "F".
32. The Petitioner was left emotionally distraught, realizing that he had no wife to return to, as the Respondent had effectively abandoned their marriage for another man. The Petitioner immersed himself in his work to cope with the situation.
33. The Petitioner's decision to cease communication with the Respondent was largely influenced by her infidelity and the birth of her child with other man.
34. Petitioner and Respondent remained separated from 1983 until present, with no attempts at reconciliation proving successful.
35. All efforts for reconciliation of the parties have been exhausted but proved futile and to no avail. The Petitioner now desires to be freed from a loveless marriage and live life liberated from the bonds of his failed marriage.

CAUSE OF ACTION

No Consent

36. Art. 2 of the Family Code² provides that no marriage shall be valid unless the essential requisites, which includes consent freely given in the presence of the solemnizing officer, are present. Art. 2 of the Family Code further provides that the absence of any of the essential or formal requisites shall render the marriage void a initio. The, Art. 15³ of the Family Code states that any contracting party between the age of twenty-one and twenty-five shall be obliged to ask their parents or guardian for advice upon the intended marriage.
37. In the case of *Ado-An-Morimoto vs Morimoto*⁴, the Supreme Court explained that:

"As a special contract, consent is, by definition, indispensable to marriage. Accordingly, the Family Code stipulates the second essential requisite of marriage to be "consent freely in the presence of the solemnizing officer."

It is vital to distinguish the authentic, underlying consent of the parties from the external manifestation of such consent during a marriage ceremony. Jurisprudence therefore recognizes that, when there is no bona fide intention of becoming a spouse to another, a marriage is void for want of consent even when marriage ceremonies have been conducted and, there, the parties declared their intent to enter into married life."

38. The ruling highlights the difference between mere outward compliance with the formalities of marriage and the true, voluntary intent to enter into a marital union. In the present case, the Petitioner's so-called consent was nothing more than a superficial compliance, forced upon him by the Respondent's family under the circumstances of duress.
39. Furthermore, in the case of *Republic of the Philippines vs Albios*⁵, the Supreme Court defined a consent freely given. To wit:

"Under said Article 2, for consent to be valid, it must be (1) freely given and (2) made in the presence of solemnizing officer. A "freely given" consent requires that the contracting parties willingly and deliberately enter into the marriage. Consent must be real in the sense that it is not vitiated nor rendered defective by any of the vices of consent under Articles 45 and 46 of the family Code, such as fraud, force, intimidation, and undue influence. Consent must also be conscious or intelligent, in that the parties must be capable of intelligently understanding the nature of, and both the beneficial or unfavorable consequences of their act. Their understanding should not be affected by insanity, intoxication, drugs, or hypnotism."

40. It is underscored that the consent must be more than a mere formality; it must be deliberate, informed, and voluntary act. The Petitioner, in this case was deprived of the opportunity to exercise such informed and voluntary act.

³ Art. 15 of the family Code of the Philippines
⁵ G.R. No. 198780, October 16, 2013

41. The circumstances surrounding the marriage of the Petitioner and Respondent make it evident that no genuine consent was given. The Petitioner, at the time of the marriage, was subjected to severe pressure, intimidation, and emotional manipulation by the Respondent's family. The marriage was a classic "shotgun wedding", where the petitioner was coerced into marriage under the threat of harm. This environment of coercion and fear is the antithesis of the "freely given" consent required by law. The Petitioner's agreement to the marriage was not a product of his free will but rather a desperate attempt to avoid immediate harm.
42. Furthermore, the Petitioner's consent was neither conscious nor intelligent. The Petitioner, at a young and impressionable age, was thrust into a life-altering decision without adequate time to contemplate the consequences. He was denied the change to seek counsel from his parents, who were entirely unaware of marriage plans. The marriage was orchestrated swiftly and without the Petitioner's genuine understanding or approval. This lack of time for reflection and advice directly contravenes the spirit of Article 15 of the Family Code, which emphasizes the need for parental guidance in such significant decision.

43. To provide further context, the relationship between the parties had only just begun when the Respondent's parents discover her pregnancy. This discovery led to the immediate and coercive arrangement of the marriage, without any consideration for the petitioner's feelings, readiness, or willingness to enter into such a union. The marriage was not the result of mutual love and respect but a hastily arranged solution to avoid societal embarrassment and family pressure. The Petitioner's involvement was not voluntary; it was compelled by external forces beyond his control.

44. The lack of genuine consent is further demonstrated by the subsequent breakdown of the marriage. The union was short-live and marked by unhappiness and dysfunction. The Respondent abandoned the Petitioner for a man shortly after the marriage, highlighting the absence of any true marital bond or commitment from the beginning. The coercive circumstances under which the marriage was entered into a foreshadowed its inevitable collapse.

45. In light of the foregoing, it is abundantly clear that the marriage between the Petitioner and Respondent is void ab initio due to the absence of the essential requisite of consent. The argument that cohabitation cured the lack of consent is untenable. The brief cohabitation period was not a product of the Petitioner's free will but was marred by ongoing fear and intimidation from the Respondent's family. The threats to the Petitioner's life and well-being persisted, preventing any possibility of a genuine, consensual marriage.

Nullity of the Marriage Based on Psychological Incapacity as the Main Cause of Action

46. Petitioner and Respondent sought the counselling of Ms. Nedy L. Tayag M.A., RPsy (“Ms. Tayag”), psychologist, and undertook relevant tests and clinical interviews to determine their individual psychological condition with respect to their ability to assume the essential obligations of the marriage.

47. After careful analysis of Ms. Tayag, she concluded based on the findings⁶ that the marriage of the parties failed due to the personality disorder of both parties that renders them incapable of fulfilling their marital duties and obligations.

48. Clinical psychologist, Ms. Nedy L. Tayag, on a clinical viewpoint, found that the Petitioner is suffering from a particular type of personality disorder known as NARCISSISTIC PERSONALITY DISORDER while the Respondent is conflicted with NARCICCISTIC PERSONALITY DISORDER and HISTRIONIC PERSONALITY DISORDER. Ms. Tayag strongly believes that the Petitioner and Respondent's psychological incapacity led to the eventual demise of their marriage.

The Petitioner’s psychological incapacity is characterized by:

- i. Petitioner’s current intellectual endowment is leveled along the plane average, reflecting his capacity to face and handle easy-to-moderate mental challenges corresponding to his age group.*
- ii. His cognitive abilities in planning, visual-motor dexterity, abstraction, keenness to detail, and logical thinking are along the standard. Meanwhile, his judgment, while on a fair scale, is prone to exhibit fluctuating performances.*
- iii. It was revealed in Petitioner’s Projective data that he has a positive disposition; yet, afraid of failure or making mistakes. He is a person who constantly strives for a sense of safety and stability.*
- iv. Due to his excessive anxiousness and strong inclination to be negative.*

⁶ See Annex “G”, Psychological Assessment conducted by Ms. Nedy L. Tayag

- v. Behind his confident demeanor is an individual with poor self-esteem and a lack of adequate appreciation of his real capacity.*
- vi. Petitioner’s low self-esteem influenced his belief that he needed to be highly productive to recognize his worth as a person.*
- vii. Petitioner’s capacity for stress is so low that in facing difficulties, he attempts to compensate by doing something that he feels is beneficial for his ego just not to feel his emotions.*
- viii. Socially, the Petitioner seeks relationships that will provide him nurturance and protection. Due to his fragile ego, he is most likely to conform to social situations to avoid the feeling of shame when he does something that is not in favor of his group.*
- ix. Petitioner wants intimacy to have feeling of something to hold on to. He seeks connection to have something to grasp onto.*
- x. Petitioner likes talking and will always ensure that thoughts and sentiments are strongly communicated, particularly those that are his own.*

Respondent’s psychological incapacity is characterized by:

- i. Respondent is self-centered. She is uncomfortable when she is not the center of attention. She displays exhibitionist behavior while constantly seeking for reassurance or approval. She is also excessively sensitive to criticism or disapproval. Respondent shows inappropriately seductive appearance or behavior of a sexual nature.*
- ii. Opinions of Respondent are easily influenced by other people, but she had difficult to back up with details. She also has the tendency to believe that relationships are more intimate than they actually are. She has high degree of suggestibility, that is, easily influenced by others or circumstances.*
- iii. Respondent rapidly shift emotional states that appear shallow to others. She exhibits excessive dramatics with exaggerated displays of emotion. Respondent blames personal failure or disappointments on others.*

49. Ms. Tayag traces Petitioner's personal disorder back to the initial phases of his development when he was still in the crucial years of laying the foundation of his person where he was exposed to enduring conditions that left a lasting impact on him. As a result, the Petitioner ended up developing an inferior self-image, which the petitioner later on tried to overcompensate, leading to his complex personality structure.

50. His personality disorder may have been proliferated by emotionally injuring childhood experiences catered by an immediate environment where he thought it was not safe to express frustration or anger, much less develop one's own initiative towards personal choices, to wit:

- i. Petitioner's view of himself and everyone else has been greatly influenced by the restrictive kind of environment that he had been immersed into as a child and the decidedly dysfunctional manner by which the dynamics of his parents' relationship have been displayed in front of him.*
- ii. Petitioner's parents, had taken upon themselves to map out everything under the premise of doing what they thought was best along the way, it had essentially denied the validity of Petitioner's own thoughts and feelings, so much so that petitioner had developed troubled making up his mind on anything without his parents or anyone else telling him what to do.*
- iii. At best, the image he was presented to emulate was the authoritarian attitude that his own father had demonstrated to the family that only encouraged more confusion and later, resentment in him knowing that he was far too uncertain to even come close to the understanding what his parents really expected from him.*
- iv. His father's faulty actions and his mother's overbearing methods hardly helped at all in Petitioner's process of developing self-confidence as he clearly felt awkwardly side lined by all the covering up that both parents engaged in while flaunting their respective authorities over someone who simply had no idea why he had to suffer the ignominy of being almost afterthought.*
- v. Growing up, Petitioner felt deeply neglected and considered himself insignificant despite the fact that both his parents were practically behind the most part, since both have only concerned themselves with imposing their own will upon petitioner without bothering to consider what it was the he had wanted to do or achieve.*
- vi. Such suppressive existence contributed highly to his disdain towards authoritative or dominant figures, particularly those he perceived to be pushing him towards situations he never would have wanted to be involved in the first place, as what his wife had been consistently doing to him for years.*
- vii. With nobody else to turn to who would have addressed his own insecurities, Petitioner has likewise failed to develop a better sense of both his actual strengths and weaknesses, and traversed through adulthood without really knowing what he wanted or what it was that could provide him some sense of satisfaction or accomplishment, specifically in his intimate relationships.*

51. Ms. Tayag traces the root causes of Respondent's personal disorder from having grown up in a dysfunctional family set-up, to wit:

- i. Having grown up with family a faulty father figure and the subsequent preoccupation of her mother with covering up for both her father's excesses as well as her personal problems, rather than taking time to attend to respondent's emotional requirements have in turn bred in her the impression that she was rejected emotionally.*
- ii. Basically, Respondent spent her childhood and early teens without having to discover her own identity as the path she was presented with was littered with personal doubts and insecurities. Seeing her father's faulty ways and watching her mother struggling helplessly to put up a front of normalcy had clearly shaken her sense of security, no matter how everyone around her tried to inject into her the notion of being special.*
- iii. The incongruence of what her parents say and their actual actions brought respondents so much instability and whatever little sense of personal security that she had growing up were also threatened seriously by the obvious fragility of her status and the seemingly difficult compromises that she had to go through in the face of competition later on.*
- iv. She always seem to want to feel needed but could not seem to display enough effort to compensate for her felt vulnerabilities, hence her pathetically loose temperament and very poor impulse control whenever she feels challenged.*
- v. Having grown up with the impression of being unwanted, respondent has thus learned to shield herself from such humiliating experiences by constant denial and through projection of an image of aggressiveness.*
- vi. She has become a person who, beneath an assertive and receptive façade, is one who harbors deep seated anxieties of being unacceptable and getting taken for granted. The enduring bitterness that respondent have done to live with early on have continued to cloud her judgment and have driven her to commit certain excesses later in life that only add up to her personal troubles.*
- vii. Upon reaching adulthood, Respondent's insatiable guest for attention and recognition continue to be at the forefront of her motives which however did not translate well in her roles as a legally married wife, and most of all, as family woman.*
- viii. In a sense, she never really grew out of her developed childhood aggression and instead, she even evolved into even more effective aggressive behaviors in adulthood, using her manipulative tactics to serve her self-engrossed agendas which to her own view, makes her feel good, or in some means, complete her flawed self-concept that she had long be trying to cover up.*

52. Petitioner’s psychological disorder manifest in the following situations:

I. Petitioner requires excessive admiration.

a. Petitioner entered multiple relationships to feel good about himself and cover up his fragile self-esteem. When the Petitioner was still working as a security guard for the Tierra Company in Rizal, Makati, he met “Marieju” who was then working as a helper in a nearby subdivision. They only ran into each other when leaving the subdivision because of their job schedules. Although he was dating Juliet (“Marieju”), Alredo had other girlfriends.

b. “Pinsan ko po guwapo. Pero bago niya nakilala si Juliet, may mga girfriend siya na pinagsabay-sabay niya. Hindi alam ng mga babae. – JOHN ADAP, cousin of the petitioner.

c. Petitioner lost contact with the respondent when he was still in USA. Upon returning, he learned that the respondent had an affair and had a child with another man she met in Olongapo. His fragile masculine ego could not accept the fact that what he used to do with other women that he had relationship before will be done to him by his wife. To bolster his fragile self-esteem, the petitioner also finds another woman to replace the respondent.

d. “Sa aking pagkakatanda, nagkaroon ng kasintahan si Kuya Fred bago ito nag-ibang bansa. Nagtrabaho siya sa ibang bansa at wala na kaming narinig na kahit ano mula sa kaniyang kasintahan hanggang sa bumalik ito sa Pilipinas.” ZALDY ADAP, cousin of the petitioner

e. “Noon tinanong ko ang aking ama, sinabi niyang kinasama ng aking Tito si Marieju noon siya ay nagtatrabaho sa Maynila bilang isang security guard. Kwento pa niya, nawalan sila ng contact noong mag-ibang bansa na ang aking uncle. Hindi na rin sila nakapag-usap kahit pa bumalik na ang aking uncle sa Pilipinas. – FREDDIE MONTEAGUDO JR., nephew of the petitioner.

II. Petitioner lacks empathy. He is unwilling to recognize or identify with the feelings and needs of others.

- a. Petitioner abandoned the respondent and their child and ceased providing financial support for them.
- b. ...ang tagal niyang hindi magpakita at hindi nagsuporta...”- Respondent's account
- c. “Lumaki ang aming anak, pinag-aral namin. Mas malaki ang gastos ng nanay ko doon sa anak ko. Noong high school, nanay ko na ang nag-paaral. “-Respondent’s account
- d. “Habang lumalaki ang anak ko, lalo siyang ninanais mnakita ng tatay niya. Binubully na siya sa school. Hindi naman nakita. Noon nauso ang social media, hinanap talaga ng anak ko kaya maraming kaibigan ang anak kong Monteagudo, pero hindi naman kilala ang tatay niya. “-Respondent’s account.
- e. “Hanggang nakakita s FB ng pinsan niya noong 2017. Anak ng kapatid ng tatay niya sa Taguig. Ayun nag-set sila at nagkita sila, at nagkita na rin kami ng tatay niY’a. Baligat nga, kami ang naghapan hindi sya. -Respondent’s account.
- f. Sa tanda ko minsan lang nagbigay ngpera yan. Nangako hindi naman tinutupad ng ama. “-Respondent’s account.
- g. “Wala akong magawa kung iyon ang gusto niya ang magpa-annul, pero paano naman ang mga taon na hindi niya sinuportahan ang anak niya. Sana naman alalahanin niya yun.” – Repondent’s account.

53. Petitioner's DEPENDENT PERSONALITY DISORDER and Respondent's HISTRIONIC PERSONALITY DISORDER are around to be existing even before their marriage, and they are grave, permanent, and incurable. Ms. Tayag stated in her Psychological Evaluation Report that:

“The psychological incapacity of both petitioner and respondent is characterized by juridical antecedence as it already existed long before they entered marriage. It is like pervasive and already deeply engrained in their respective systems that expecting any changes from either party in favor of reconciliation as well as normal cohabitation as husband and wife is deemed to be an extremely remote possibility.”

54. Based on her findings, Ms. Tayag highly recommends the declaration of the parties' marriage null and void on the ground of psychological incapacity:

“With both already getting accustomed towards leading separate lives with hardly any consideration as to what the other might decide to pursue moving forward, the possibility of meaningful union that is based on love, mutual respect and trust is already considered a remote possibility, if not a foregone conclusion. In the context or herein facts and findings, the declaration of nullity of petitioner’s marriage to respondent is hereby firmly recommended.”

55. The foregoing facts clearly established that both the Petitioner and Respondent failed to comply with the essential marital obligations. It must be further underscored that Petitioner failed to comply with Article 68 of the Family Code, to wit:

“Article 68. The husband and wife are obliged to live together, observe mutual love, respect and fidelity, and render mutual help and support.”

56. Both the Petitioner and Respondent infringed on their marital vows and obligations as laid down in Article 68 of the Family Code. Their actions and behavior clearly demonstrate their lack of proper stance as married couple.

57. In this case of Dela Cruz-Lanuza v. Lanuza, Jr. and the Republic of the Philippines⁷, the Honorable Court ruled that:

“Unjustified absence from the marital home for decades may be considered as part of the totality of evidenced that a person is psychologically incapacitated to comply with the essential obligations of marriage.”

58. The Court reasoned that prolonged abandonment, without justifiable cause and occurring over a substantial duration, could signify a severe defect in the individual's psychological makeup, rendering them unable to comply with the essential obligations of marriage under Article 36 of the Family Code. In this context, physical separation is not simply a failure of cohabitation but a manifestation of psychological condition that prevents the individual from appreciating or fulfilling marital duties such mutual respect, fidelity, and support.

59. Applying this precedent, both the Petitioner and the Respondent demonstrated a pattern of abandonment and neglect throughout their marriage. This prolonged absence and lack of mutual support highlight each party's incapacity to meet even the most basic obligations of marital life. The Petitioner's disregard for financial support and emotional involvement in the life of his child further demonstrates a profound lack of empathy and commitment – traits incompatible with the responsibilities inherent in marriage. Similarly, the Respondent's actions, including her erratic behavior and need for attention reveal an incapacity for the sustained, balanced relationship required of marital partners.

60. In view of the Petitioner and Respondent's failure to comply with the essential marital obligations, their marriage should be declared void according to Article 36 of the Family Code, which states:

"Article 36. A marriage contracted by any party who, at the time of the celebration, was psychologically incapacitated to comply with the essential marital obligations of marriage, shall likewise be void even if such incapacity becomes manifest only after its solemnization."

61. Marriage is an inviolable social institution sanctified by religion and its nature governed by law. The marriage of Petitioner and Respondent should be declared void ab initio because both parties never really had the heart, will, and mind for marriage and its attendant obligations. Marital vows are not empty and hollow promises of affection and love but a lifetime commitment between a man and a woman. Marriage does not merely speak of the present state that one's heart but embraces the past and must patiently endure the future. The facts of the present case clearly show that Petitioner did not take into consideration the attendant obligation of marriage.

62. Thus, there was no marriage that look place on May 3, 1983, which is, at best, on an empty ritual or a hollow ceremony. Their wedding therefore a farce, as Petitioner and Respondent were psychologically incapacitated to comply with the essential obligations of marriage. In full fairness to the parties, therefore, they should be freed from the bonds tying them.

63. The "seeds" or manifestations of the Petitioner and the Respondent's psychological incapacity to comply with the essential marital obligations manifested only sometime after the celebration of their marriage.

64. Therefore, the marriage of the Petitioner and Respondent must be dissolved in the best interest of the State. In the case of Azcueta vs. Republic⁸, the Supreme Court quotes the ruling cited in the case of Te vs. Yu-Te.

"In dissolving marital bonds on account of either party's psychological incapacity, the Court is not demolishing the foundation of families, but is actually protecting the sanctity of marriage, because it refuses to allow a person afflicted with a psychological disorder, who cannot comply with or assume the essential marital obligations, from remaining in that sacred bond. Let it be noted that in Article 36, there is no marriage to speak of in the first place, as the same is void from the very beginning. To indulge in imagery, the declaration of nullity under Art 36 will simply provide a decent burial to a stillborn marriage. (Emphasis and underscoring supplied)

⁸ (G.R. No. 180668, May 26, 2009)

65. Succinctly put, the marriage between Petitioner and Respondent should be declared void ab initio because Petitioner and Respondent never really had the heart, will, and mind, for marriage and its attendant obligations as outlined in the Family Code. The manifestations of their psychological incapacity to comply with the essential marital obligations were already present even prior to the celebration of their marriage and just became more evident after its celebration.

66. There are no existing properties belonging too the absolute community of property that can be disposed of in accordance with law.

67. Petitioner and Respondent did not incur any conjugal debts.

68. All efforts for reconciliation of the parties have been exhausted but proved futile and to not avail.

69. In view of the foregoing, Petitioner respectfully requests this Honorable Court to declare his marriage to Respondent as null and void due to psychological incapacity of both parties to comply with the essential marital obligations.

Highlighting the spirit of fair play, Ralph Sebastian Felicitas, team captain of the Imus City Gunners, led the oath of sportsmanship, before the match draw lots determined the opening fixtures. The ceremony concluded with the official declaration and ceremonial kick-off of the 2nd Cavite Football Cup, marking the beginning of what promises to be an exciting season of youth football in the province. This year's tournament not only champions athletic excellence but also fosters unity among Cavite's diverse communities, proving once again that football is more than just a game, it's a force for local pride and positive change. — A. and reduce administrative workload at both TESDA and DepEd field offices. Sec. Kiko said the partnership represents a breakthrough in how government agencies can work together for learners and emphasized that the integration will not only ease the burden on learners but also on TESDA and DepEd personnel in the field. “By linking our systems, we ensure that every learner is properly identified and given access to the assessment services they deserve. This partnership reflects our commitment to transparent, efficient, and learner-centered public service,” Sec. Kiko said. Under the agreement, DepEd will provide TESDA secure access to learner data through the LIS, while TESDA will process this information via ASIS for assessment scheduling and issuance of National Certificates. Both agencies have designated Data Protection Officers and established strict safeguards, including encryption, multi-factor authentication, breach notification protocols, and compliance with the Data Privacy Act. Through this collaboration, the government ensures that SHS-TVL learners are better supported, their credentials safeguarded, and their opportunities for employment and career advancement expanded. (TESDA)

PGC cultivates future-ready leaders

The Provincial Government of Cavite (PGC) through the Office of the Provincial Human Resource Management Officer (OPHRMO) headed by Ms. Maria Fe M. Satsatin, facilitated a transformative seminar titled “Innovation and Adaptive Leadership” on September 11, 2025, at the Function Hall of the New Provincial Government Center in Trece Martires City. The seminar brought together PGC department and unit heads, as well as officers-in-charge from various offices, to strengthen their leadership capabilities and embrace innovative, adaptive approaches to public service. Provincial Administrator Engr. Gilbert V. Gandia opened the activity with an inspiring message, emphasizing that leadership is a continuous journey and that “there is always room for improvement.” The highlight of the event was the insightful talk of Ms. Luwalhati T. Briones, Academic Service Coordinator of Golden Link College, who served as the resource speaker. She encouraged participants to know their purpose and mission in life, and reminded them that “leadership is a human act that comes from the heart.” Ms. Briones also noted that in collaborative problem-solving, “adults are the source of wisdom while the young bring fresh, updated perspectives.” She further discussed the importance of the core Filipino values – Makadiyos, Makatao, Makabayan, at Makakalikasan, and the essential balance of IQ, EQ, and AQ in effective leadership. She also reminded participants to avoid making decisions when experiencing extreme emotions such as joy, anger, or sadness. Through engaging group activities, participants reflected on their learnings and shared their key takeaways: being result-oriented, addressing root causes, embracing Filipino values, leading with fear of God, and continuously striving to learn. Ms. Luzviminda Amparo, OIC of the Office of the Provincial General Services Officer shared that “you are a good leader if you can develop the best leaders,” while Provincial Assessor Raymundo Salazar underscored the importance of leading by example. Tokens were awarded to participants who actively contributed during the activities. Chief of Staff Mr. Ferdinand A. Belamide closed the program by commending the participants' energy and the OPHRMO's efforts in nurturing a new generation of leaders. The seminar stood as a powerful reminder that true leadership goes beyond adapting to change – it means inspiring others, fostering growth, and leading with both purpose and heart. — R. A total of 167 jobseekers were able to connect with potential employers, whether for local or international opportunities. — J. Reyes (CPIO)

DOST 10 Nakibahagi sa
Multi-Agency Coordination
Meeting para sa Pagtatatag ng
Seafarers Hub sa Cagayan de Oro City

Noong Agosto 26, 2025, kinatawan ni Engr. Ruel Vincent C. Banal ang DOST-10 sa isang coordination meeting na inorganisa ng OWWA hinggil sa pagtatatag ng Seafarers Hub sa Cagayan de Oro City. Ang Seafarers’ Hub ay isang pisikal na one-stop center kung saan makakakuha ng serbisyo ang mga sea-based OFWs at kanilang pamilya habang naghihintay ng deployment, training, o mga dokumento. Hango ito sa unang hub sa Maynila, at magiging bukas 24/7. Magkakaroon ito ng mga pahingahan, libreng Wi-Fi, charging stations, pagkain at inumin, legal na tulong, at mga pangunahing serbisyong pangkalusugan gaya ng check-up. Magsisilbi rin itong venue para sa mga training at skills programs na naglalayong protektahan ang karapatan ng mga seafarer at suportahan ang kanilang pag-unlad. Ang hub, na nakatakdang itayo sa mismong lungsod ng Cagayan de Oro, ay magpapalawak ng mga benepisyong ito para sa mga seafarer sa Northern Mindanao. Bilang suporta sa inisyatibong ito, binigyang-diin ng DOST ang kanilang programang nakalaan para sa mga OFW. Ang IFWD PH Program ay isa sa mga reintegration pathways para sa mga seafarer at kanilang pamilya, na nagbibigay ng pagsasanay, konsultasyon, at pondo para sa inobasyon upang makatulong sa pagtatayo ng pangmatagalang kabuhayan. Sa kasalukuyan, mayroon nang mga returning OFWs sa Northern Mindanao na natulungan sa ilalim ng programang ito.

On the TVI Toledo plant's cornerstone-laying,
PMCJ: Aboitiz Power's coal expansion in Cebu undermines climate goals, public health

Toledo, Philippines — The Philippine Movement for Climate Justice (PMCJ) strongly opposes Aboitiz Power's proposed 150-megawatt (MW) coal power plant expansion in Toledo City, Cebu. This statement follows the project's cornerstone-laying ceremony held on Sept. 12, 2025, at the site of Therma Visayas Inc. (TVI), a subsidiary of Aboitiz Power. While company executives claim the expansion will strengthen the Visayas' power reserves, PMCJ Visayas Policy Advisor Lito Vasquez points out that past outages in the region have been driven by unplanned shutdowns and derated operations of large baseload coal plants—including those embedded in Cebu—which have repeatedly destabilized the grid. "Early retirement of coal plants is not only feasible, it is essential for economic and climate resilience," said Estela Patalinghug, PMCJ Visayas Coordinator. "Diversifying the Visayas' energy mix by integrating more renewables and battery storage is critical to meeting peak demand and ensuring reliable reserves. Yet Aboitiz Power seeks to extend coal generation for another 30 to 50 years, directly contradicting the Paris Agreement's mandate for rapid coal phaseout." PMCJ also raises serious concerns about the public health impact of adding more coal capacity in Cebu City. Although the ceremony is cited as the start of construction, PMCJ points out that the project cannot proceed immediately. The TVI expansion qualifies as an Environmentally Critical Project (ECP) and is located within the Tañon Strait Protected Seascape (TSPS)—a designated health-sensitive area. This means it should undergo the Health Impact Assessment (HIA) process mandated by DOH-DILG Joint Administrative Order No. 2021-0001, pursuant to Section 33 of the Universal Health Care Act (RA 11223). The HIA process was triggered after PMCJ formally alerted the Health Promotion Bureau (HPB) of the DOH Central Office regarding the impending construction. In response, the HPB notified TVI and the Toledo City Government in late September last year, effectively delaying the project pending HIA compliance. While TVI submitted its application to the HPB-DOH in January, construction can only proceed after completing the process and securing a Health Impact Clearance Certificate (HICC). The Toledo City Government shall issue no permits until the HICC is granted. With the DOH requiring a comprehensive HIA—a process expected to take over a year—construction will be delayed until mid-2026 or until TVI fulfills the DOH's requirements to thoroughly evaluate the potential health impacts of the expansion project and identify appropriate mitigation measures. Based on the preliminary assessment of TVI's Scoping Report, a resident scientist from the Environmental Law Alliance Worldwide (ELAW) noted that "epidemiological evidence conclusively demonstrates that exposure to particulate matter in ambient air increases mortality rates at levels well below national ambient air quality standards (NAAQS)." The current NAAQS, set by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) under Administrative Order No. 2000-81, have remained unchanged since their issuance in November 2000, despite the Clean Air Act of 1999 (RA 8749) requiring biennial review and revision. These standards are significantly weaker than the World Health Organization's Global Air Quality Guidelines. The position paper submitted by Clean Air Asia to the DENR reported that adopting global practices on emission limits could cut acute respiratory infections near coal plants by up to 83%. Over a typical 30-year plant lifespan, this means economic gains of PHP 408 million under stricter standards, and PHP 981 million with best practices. PM 2.5 pollutants are of particular concern. A 2020 study by the Center for Research on Energy and Clean Air (CREA) found that in 2019, about 21,700 deaths in the Philippines were linked to PM2.5 exposure, with total air pollution-related deaths reaching 66,230. Given the Cebu Provincial Government's commitment to strengthening health programs for vulnerable sectors, PMCJ calls on Governor Pamela Baricuatro to reject business-as-usual energy policies. While energy is vital for development, it must not come at the cost of public health and environmental integrity.

PBBM commends GOCCs for reform, record-high dividends, service
to Bagong Pilipinas

President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Tuesday commended government-owned or -controlled corporations (GOCCs) for their transformation into strong contributors to the Bagong Pilipinas vision, citing record dividend remittances that finance classrooms, hospitals, and social programs across the country. In his speech during the 2025 GOCCs Day held in Malacañan Palace, President Marcos said GOCCs have overcome a history of inefficiency and mismanagement to emerge as symbols of reform and resilience in governance. "Inefficiency, lack of accountability, and financial strain tested their credibility. But our GOCCs did not fold under pressure. Instead, the GOCCs persevered, treating every difficulty as a chance to reform, to rebuild, and to restore public trust," President Marcos said. The President cited steady growth in GOCC remittances, which averaged Php36 billion between 2011 and 2013 and reached Php137.26 billion in 2024. The President added that collections this year have already reached Php106.09 billion as of September, reflecting stronger performance and governance. "From 2011 to 2013, the authorized dividend remittance of GOCCs reached an average of Php36 billion. This trajectory only grew stronger, surpassing Php137 billion in 2024," the President said. President Marcos underscored that these figures represent direct benefits for Filipino communities, as the revenues fund infrastructure, health care, education, and social welfare. "These funds will finance the establishment and renovations of classrooms, of hospitals, and of infrastructure, as well as the implementation of vital social programs ," the Chief Executive said. The President also positioned GOCCs as central to the Bagong Pilipinas campaign, describing them as "beacon of integrity, excellence, and service." Spearheaded by the Department of Finance (DOF), the GOCCs Day is an annual celebration to give due recognition to the GOCCs' significant and invaluable contributions through the dividend remittances, which help augment the funding needs of the government. It is also a ceremonial turnover of dividends that began in 2011. During the 2025 GOCCs' Day, President Marcos recognized 53 remitting GOCCs and five corporations that joined the Governance Commission for GOCCs (GCG) Service Caravan, stressing their collective commitment to extending government services. | PNĐ

PHILIPPINES BREAKS INTO TOP 50 IN 2025 GLOBALINNOVATION INDEX, POWERED BY DOST'S R&D AND TALENT DEVELOPMENT

Manila, Philippines

— The Philippines has reached a new milestone in global competitiveness, climbing to 50th place in the 2025 Global Innovation Index (GII)—its best performance to date.

The Global Innovation Index (GII), produced annually by the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and global partners, ranks over 139 economies based on innovation inputs—such as human capital, research and development (R&D), and institutions—and outputs, including knowledge, technology, and creative products.

The Philippines has shown steady progress in recent years: from 59th in 2022, 56th in 2023, 53rd in 2024, and now 50th in 2025. The country also ranked 3rd among lower middle-income economies, underscoring its growing strength in science, technology, and innovation (STI) across Southeast Asia, East Asia, and Oceania.

At the core of this achievement is the Department of Science and Technology (DOST), which drives the nation's innovation momentum by funding research, supporting talent, and linking enterprises to global markets. In the past three years alone, DOST has funded more than 3,000 R&D projects across 17 regions, advancing solutions in climate resilience, health, digital transformation, and advanced manufacturing. Equally crucial is talent development. DOST supports over 45,000 undergraduate and graduate scholars, while the Philippine Science High School System nurtures more than 6,000 young scientists annually, ensuring a strong pipeline of future innovators.

DOST also bridges research and enterprise through its Small Enterprise Technology Upgrading Program (SETUP), which has helped over 5,000 MSMEs modernize operations, while programs like PROPEL and the DOST-PCCI Business Technology Hub accelerate the commercialization of homegrown technologies and connect them to global value chains.

Looking ahead, the Department is steering investments into eight frontier R&D areas: Artificial Intelligence, Quantum Computing, Geospatial Analytics, Industry 4.0, Circular Economy, Smart Agriculture, Biologics in Pharmaceuticals, and Smart Technologies.

“Science, technology, and innovation must deliver solutions and create opportunities for every Filipino, our families and communities,” said DOST Secretary Renato U. Solidum Jr. “Our role is to ensure that research turns into real products, services, and industries that improve lives—from students and startups to farmers, workers, and entrepreneurs. Innovation is not just a national strategy; it is a shared promise of a better future.” With this momentum, the Philippines is poised to further solidify its place as a rising hub of innovation in the global arena, with DOST at the helm of transforming research into impact. (Nelson Santos)

Sports Tourism ng bansa susi sa tagumpay ng Pambansang paglago PSC Chairman Gregorio

Binigyang-diin ni Patrick Gregorio, ang chairman ng Philippine Sports Commission, ang kahalagahan ng sports tourism habang ang bansa ay naglalayong iposisyon ang sarili bilang isang pangunahing pandaigdigang destinasyon sa isports. "Ang pinakamalaking kaganapan sa turismo ay mga kaganapang pampalakasan," sabi ni Gregorio habang ang Pilipinas ay abala sa pagho-host ng 32-bansang FIVB

Volleyball Men's Championship sa Smart Araneta Coliseum at MOA Arena.

Ang kaganapan ay nakakuha ng mga nangungunang bansa sa volleyball na pinangunahan ng mundo No. 1 na Poland, sinundan ng Italy, Brazil, France, at Estados Unidos. Ito ay naganap dalawang taon pagkatapos na matagumpay na co-host ng Pilipinas ang FIBA World Cup kasama ang Indonesia at Japan.

Sa Nobyembre, magho-host din ang Pilipinas ng 3rd FIG Artistic Gymnastics Junior World Championships at ng FIFA Futsal Women's World Cup.

Ang Alas Pilipinas, ang pambansang koponan, ay ibinubuhos ang lahat ng laban sa mga pinakamagaling sa isport. Ang Nationals, na nirarango na ika-88 sa mundo, ay natalo sa Tunisia sa araw ng pagbubukas at pagkatapos ay nagtagumpay sa isang mahika na panalo sa apat na set laban sa Egypt, na nirarango na ika-21.

Alas Pilipinas, ang underdog, ay gumawa ng hindi inaasahan sa pamamagitan ng pagkapanalo sa Egypt sa harap ng lokal na tagahanga at pinanatili ang kanilang pag-asa na makapagpatuloy sa susunod na yugto.

Sinabi ni Gregorio na ito ay isang malaking prodig na sandali para sa bolleyball ng Pilipinas, lalo na para sa koponan ng mga kalalakihan, at ito ay nangyari sa gitna ng mga kritisismo ukol sa gastos ng pagho-host ng kaganapang may 32 bansa.

"Ang tagumpay na ito ay para sa mga naniwala na kaya natin. Ito ay isang regalo para sa mga dumalo, mga sumuporta mula sa kanilang mga tahanan at sa mga patuloy na sumusupport sa ating pambansang koponan at isports ng Pilipinas," sabi ni Gregorio.
